On October 24, 2026, FFWPU Marshall Islands hosted a warm and uplifting 1-Day Divine Principle Workshop at the Peace Embassy in Majuro, bringing together returning childhood members, local faith leaders, and dedicated students for a day of spiritual renewal and deep fellowship.

Reconnecting with Childhood Memories and Scripture

National Leader Rev. Takaaki Ito led the main workshop sessions, delivering core lectures on the Principle of Creation, the Fall of Man, and Restoration.

From Left to Right: Deacon Mr. Heine Jr. Chris, Rev. Joel Heine (Assemblies of God church, Arkansas state, USA), Kemmei Ito (younger brother of Rev. Takaaki), and Youth Pastor of Assemblies of God Church of Rita Church in Majuro, Marshall Islands, Pastor Edmond Ezra Heine

The event was highlighted by the attendance of distinguished guests from the Assemblies of God Church who shared long-standing roots with the local community:

- Rev. Joel Heine — Pastor, Assemblies of God Church (Arkansas, USA)

- Mr. Heine Jr. Chris — Deacon, Assemblies of God Church (Arkansas, USA)
- Pastor Edmond Ezra Heine — Youth Pastor, Assemblies of God Church (Rita Church, Majuro)

During the gathering, Rev. Joel Heine fondly reminisced about attending Sunday services during his childhood, singing holy songs at the center, and growing up playing with Kemmei Ito, the younger brother of Rev. Takaaki Ito.

Finding Answers in Personal Study

In addition to the main workshop, FFWPU Marshall Islands continues to support individual spiritual growth through tailored 1-on-1 Divine Principle study series:

- Unlocking Biblical Questions: Penny Areieta, who has been attending evening sessions every other day, shared his excitement over how the Divine Principle resolved long-standing questions about the Bible that no other church had been able to clarify. He looks forward to completing the full lecture series.

- Preparing for the Blessing: Jellyann Joab has been consistently participating in 1-on-1 lectures, expressing deep inspiration to continue her spiritual education in preparation for the Matching and Blessing.
