See Workbook project our UK BFD Team have worked hard to complete! Available now on Amazon...

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I'm excited to share this update on our UK BFD Workbook project presented at the Blessed Family Department Summit in Italy last November by Steve S. with special thanks and acknowledgement to our 'Creating a Couple Coaching Workbook' project group -@Cecilie F., Christopher F., Najette C., Patrizia O., Barbara S. Check it out and if you are interested on using this in your neighbourhood and community, there is a complementary chapter we can send to you on how to use this book as a mediator/coach and how to use it in a home group. It's now out there for you to buy on amazon.

'The principles of creation is a real and practical tool for having a healthy life, relationships and career ( I.e the idea that how God creates is how we create) i.e Have a goal, find who can help you, what are the baby steps, where is the beauty, where is the respect, what do we learn, giving feedback).'

Here is also a look at the forward of the book-

In the first chapter of the Bible, we read, "So God created mankind in his own image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them" (Genesis 1:27, NIV). This statement highlights a profound truth: when a man and a woman come together in partnership, they reveal a fuller reflection of God's nature. When working in harmony, they embody qualities we associate with God - compassion, creativity, wisdom, and strength. Their unity in marriage doesn't just bring personal benefits. They create powerful, creative forces that shape families, communities, and nations. Because they represent the most complete picture of God that we know of, they have the power to generate positive energy that brings blessings to their community.

Their partnership generates energy that may bring forth children and extends outward, bringing extended families, religious communities, schools, sports teams, and countless other community-building activities to life. In this way, the partnership between a man and a woman serves as a foundation for community life and allows blessings to flow into the world.

This book is designed to help couples build a stronger, more empowered partnership. It seeks to help partners work through issues so they can create a team or an "us" mindset. The worksheets, quizzes, and activities in this book aim to help strengthen a couple's bond so they might create a more robust, unified vision.

This book can be used by an individual or married couple as a means to improve their partnering skills. It can also be used by a mentor couple who seeks to assist individual couples in their faith community or as they run a small-group marriage enrichment program in their home or religious community over a series of evenings. In all of the above cases, it is highly recommended that all involved have their own copy of this book - a place where they can make personal notes, chose topics they wish to discuss, do their own quiz, and more.'
