Special Activities to Commemorate the First Anniversary of True Father's Seonghwa

Michael Balcomb

May 15, 2013

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

It's hard to believe, but we will soon be coming up on the first anniversary of True Father's Seonghwa ceremony, which will fall on August 23, 2013 (July 17 by the Heavenly Calendar), just 100 days from today.

Earlier this morning, we received the following short message from our International Vice President, Dr. Chang Shik Yang, inviting and encouraging all of us to mark these days with some special effort. I am pleased to see that the proposed effort be one of outreach, witnessing and education, which is our top priority here in the United States as well.

I'd like to encourage all members and all families to consider an appropriate response to this request and to be ready to take action, starting from today. I'll let you know details about the proposed main commemoration services in Korea when further information becomes available. It is my understanding that there will be a major service and ceremony at the Cheong Shim World Peace Center on the day itself, with the possibility of "pilgrimage" events over the weekend. Of course, we will also arrange local observances throughout the United States as well.

Blessings,

Dr. Michael Balcomb
President
