

Scotland invites you to attend the Cultivating Character Seminar, 18-19 May 2019

James A. Baughman
March 27, 2019

Our Scottish community are holding a 2-Day seminar in Glasgow on "Cultivating Character", which is being partially sponsored by Baughman Education and the Scottish Universal Peace Federation.

There will be thought provoking and enriching presentations given by James A. Baughman, Ph.D.

Cultivating Character

Seminar

Focusing on

Foundation

We can learn universal insights from the great religious and moral philosophical traditions about how humans are designed as moral beings.

Character

Good character comes from knowing the good, loving the good and doing the good.

Leadership

Since all people are destined to take leadership roles in society as citizens, teachers and parents, it becomes imperative their influence be benevolent, wholesome and constructive in order to establish a world of goodness and peace.

Some of the questions that will be answered are:

Why is it important to be a person of good character?

How do we distinguish between virtue and vice?

What is the nature of good character?

How do we grow and become people of good character?

Cultivating Character Seminar Booklet Download

Details

Where: Mel-Milaap Community Centre, Caledonian Crescent, Glasgow, G12 8HQ

When: 18th – 19th May 2019

Cost: £15 each (Students £5)

For more information contact:

Taresh: 07999 440 201 or tareshnagar1@hotmail.com

Ann: annlim214@hotmail.com

Synopsis of Presentations

What is Character ? The purpose of this presentation is to explore the definition of character and the role it plays in the development of personal integrity and civilization as a whole; it also looks at the criteria used to determine good character and the manner in which the seminar will unfold to explore this criteria.

How are We Designed as Human Beings ? This topic explores our inherent propensities to seek happiness, fulfillment and lasting relationships; it attempts to identify these natural desires in terms of a number of life goals designed to help us fulfill our greatest potential as human beings.

What is the Nature of Virtue and Vice ? This topic explores the nature of good and evil (right and wrong); it attempts to demonstrate that the definitions of good and evil are not relative, but rather universal and absolute when seen in light of our true desires and life goals.

Sexuality, Marriage and Family

This topic explores the human desire for sexual intimacy in the context of true human potential and life goals, and the devastating consequences that occur to individuals, families and societies when acted upon outside of that context.

Exploring the Ethereal Dimension

This topic explores the internal dimension of the human being mainly from the point of view of science and logical consistency with the topics already presented; it also explores how good character is fundamentally connected to this dimension.

How Does Discipline and Training Work ?

This topic explores the nature of discipline and how it is an integral aspect to all learning; it explores the process and methods by which we learn and grow, the stages involved in order to ultimately reach excellence, and the mentality needed to succeed.

How Do I Become a Person of Character ?

This topic explores a practical approach to identifying choices and habits that stand in the way of our personal development, and reversing these in favor of choices and habits that reinforce the fulfillment of true human potential and life goals. This is followed by a time of individual reflection and goal-setting in order to establish a daily routine of improving personal character and integrity.

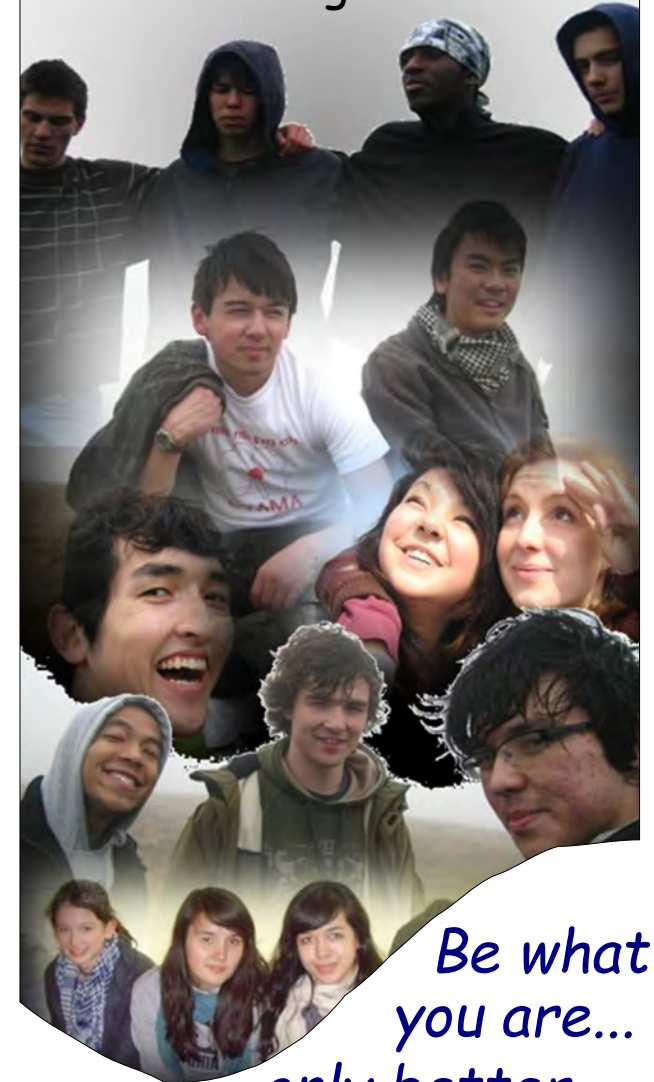

Thought provoking and enriching presentations given by

James A. Baughman,
Ph.D.

Cultivating Character Seminar

18th—19th May 2019
Glasgow

*Be what you are...
only better*

The Focus

Foundation We can learn universal insights from the great religious and moral philosophical traditions about how humans are designed as moral beings.

Character Good character comes from knowing the good, loving the good and doing the good.

Leadership Since all people are destined to take leadership roles in society as citizens, teachers and parents, it becomes imperative their influence be benevolent, wholesome and constructive in order to establish a world of goodness and peace.

Becoming People of Character

Questions answered

Why is it important to be a person of good character ?

How do we distinguish between virtue and vice ?

What is the nature of good character ?

How do we grow and become people of good character ?

Cultivating Character Weekend Seminar

Engaging debates and friendly group discussions.

Warm homemade meals prepared each day.

Where: Mel-Milaap Community Centre, Caledonian Crescent, Glasgow, G12 8HQ

When: 18th - 19th May 2019

Cost: £15 each (Students £5)

For more information contact

* Taresh (07999 440 201)

tareshnagar1@hotmail.com

* Ann

annlim214@hotmail.com

Sponsored by BoughmanEducation
and the Scottish Universal Peace Federation