

Glorious ascension, Angelika Cutts!

May all go well for you along your way, dear sister Angelika!

Angelika Cutts ascended on Saturday, March 10, 2017. On March 11th, her husband, Rev. Tom Cutts wrote:

For several years, my wife, Angelika Cutts, battled cancer without complaint. On Saturday, March 10, 2018 she made her transition into the Eternal World.

She passed peacefully soon after listening to our eldest son, Brian Cutts, and his wife, Joy, who called by phone from England. Our other sons, Daniel Cutts and Atombo Cutts, and our daughter, Bekah Cutts, and I were at her bedside.

Though she could not speak, she heard us express our love and gratitude for all that she had done for us. After many tears, and many empty boxes of tissue, it is now a relief to know that she is no longer in pain.

Especially in the last week, I witnessed the Hand of our Heavenly Parent guiding her passing. I am grateful to God and True Parents for her love and for her life, and for what we enjoyed together.
