True Mother's message at the Second Anniversary of True Father's Universal Seonghwa

As a result of the Fall of Adam and Eve, the first ancestors of humankind, Heaven had to pass through the providence of restoration through indemnity, a history marked by pain and bitter sorrow. However, not once did God forget about his lost children. To save them, he had to go through a miserable and excruciating history. When he established his chosen people during the long four-thousand-year providence and realized his promise to send his only begotten son, humanity once more committed a mistake in front of this great grace given by God.
