Greetings Brothers & Sisters,

We are excited that you have chosen to attend the great gospel celebration this Saturday at Madison Square Garden! Rev. Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon will deliver an important message to the nation. She'll speak on Unity, Hope and Peace, a message needed by our country today. A. Curtis Farrow has assembled a 2,000-voice mass choir, and Yolanda Adams and Hezekiah Walker will perform. This is an exciting event that you'll not want to miss.

The doors open at 2 p.m. on Saturday, July 15, and the program should conclude shortly after 5:00 p.m.

Entering Madison Square Garden

The Garden is located at 4 Pennsylvania Plaza on Seventh Avenue (between West 31st St and West 33rd Street), New York, NY 10001

Security

As per MSG regulations, everyone entering the venue, without exception, will be going through airport-style security before entering the ticket area. Please allow additional time for screening.

Madison Square Garden asks all guests to arrive early and travel light. All persons and bags are subject to search. Bags that have passed inspection must fit comfortably under your seat. Oversized bags are prohibited. MSG does not provide an area to check bags, coats or any other personal belongings. No outside food or drink is permitted to be brought into the Garden.

Seating

Seating is assigned by ticket and ushers will guide you to your section. You need the white MSG printed ticket to enter and get your seat.

If you need special seating for wheelchair, MSG Staff will meet you at the box office and provide you with those specific tickets.

Translation

The program will be in English, but the keynote speaker, Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, will speak in Korean. Translations will be provided using a cell phone conference system.

English will be translated into Spanish, Korean and Japanese. The keynote speech will be translated from Korean into English, Spanish and Japanese. Please bring a fully charged cell phone to the event. You will be provided a toll-free number, and connected directly to a translation.

Please also bring a personal headset or earbuds. Additional earbuds will be available. If some in your party do not have phones (such as children), we recommend a headphone splitter and additional headset to allow another person to listen from the same phone.

Food and Beverages

No outside food or beverages are permitted in MSG. We recommend eating lunch before entering the venue. However, the MSG concession stands will be open and snacks can be purchased.

Dress Code

Church attire.

Video and Photography

This event will be filmed with video and still cameras, and will be broadcast internationally. By entering the premises you give your consent for your image to be used, including your minor children.
