March 27, 2021

Dear family,

We look forward to seeing you tomorrow for service. Pastor Mike will be sharing the final message on our Spiritual Laws series. He will be talking about "Digesting Unfairness in Life."

Tomorrow will also be a church council meeting. Anyone interested in attending is welcome to come to the church office at 9am for the meeting.

Below, you will find Pastor Adonia's message from last Sunday. Her message was, "What You Bind on Earth is Bound in Heaven", and she talked about the value of living a good life today and the heart and intention by which we live every moment. You can watch her recording and the offering song.

See you all soon!
