

Ambitious, enthusiastic and experienced Pastor Couple wanted for South London

Matthew Huish
November 28, 2018

South London Community is looking for ambitious, enthusiastic, confident, experienced and highly organised individuals to take on one of the most important positions of Pastor Couple to be responsible for effectively raising the next generation of young leaders, who will be able to make a positive contribution to society, by empowering them through the study and application of the teachings of Sun Myung Moon and Hak Ja Han.

Salary £15,000 per person. 36 hours per week per person. 4 years renewable contract.

All applications will be interviewed by the South London Community Committee. A shortlist of no more than three qualifying candidates will then be put forward to all community members who will vote for their preferred candidates. The candidates who receive the most votes will need to be approved by the National Leader before they are offered the positions.

If interested, please email both of your CVs and a personal statement telling us why you would like to apply for this job, why you think you are suited to this job and what you think you can bring to the job to hr.ffwpu.uk@gmail.com by 23:59 on Monday, 31st December 2018.
