

This Week in History - December 7 - 13

Seog Byung Kim
December 8, 2014

True Parents' Crown of Peace Ceremony Washington DC, December 13, 2004

True Parents' Crown of Peace Ceremony, in which religious and political leaders together crowned True Parents as the king and queen of peace, occurred on December 13, 2004, in the Washington Marriott Hotel. True Father delivered his speech, "Our Mission in the Last Days of Providential History" to more than 3,400 leaders from around the world. In this speech, he emphasized, "We have the heavenly fortune that enables us to establish God's home nation."

Establishment of the Korean Cultural Foundation Seoul, Korea, December 9, 1969

The Korean Cultural Foundation was established in Seoul on December 9, 1969 in order to support Little Angels, which had been enhancing the nation's prestige by promoting Korean culture around the world. In obedience to True Parents' instructions, our Korean elders created a foundation to manage the Little Angels. They obtained permission from the Ministry of Culture in December 1969. The Little Angels troupe has visited more than seventy nations, performing more than six thousand times, and acting as an emissary of peace has met top-level leaders in more than fifty nations.

(Courtesy of the History Compilation Committee)

True Mother's Speech in Brazil
Brasilia, Brazil, December 9, 1993

The first speech True Mother gave in South America took place at the Naun Plaza Hotel in Brasilia, Brazil, on December 9, 1993. At this speech, part of Mother's "True Parents and the Completed Testament Age Tour," the president of Brazil's Congresso Nacional warmly welcomed her. She spoke about the importance of the mother's role in the Completed Testament Age and the audience responded with warm applause. The South American leg of her speaking tour continued through Montevideo, Uruguay on December 10, Buenos Aires, Argentina, on December 11, and Lima, Peru, on December 13. (Courtesy of History Compilation Committee)

