The banner says: The Peace Road for Unification, from Halla Mountain (in South Korea) to Baekdu Mountain (in North Korea) is in our Hands

The “Korean and Japanese University Students Peace Road Visit Team,” organized by the World Peace Tunnel Foundation, visited the border between China and North Korea from 7th to 11th of July. At the same time, it was the 70th anniversary of North South Division and the 50th anniversary of Korea Japan treaty.

This journey of 1460km began in Daren, China, through Dandong and ended in the city of Tumen, located in the northeast of the Korean Peninsula.
