

This Week in History (Nov. 1 - Nov. 7)

Seog Byung Kim
November 2, 2015

Proclamation of the Settlement of the Family Federation for World Peace and the Dissolution of Indemnity (November 1, 1996, Victoria Plaza Hotel, Montevideo, Uruguay)

On November 1, 1996, at the Victoria Plaza Hotel in Montevideo, Uruguay, the Proclamation of the Settlement of the Family Federation for World Peace and the Dissolution of Indemnity was held. In attendance were 2,500 people including Uruguayan leaders from various fields. True Father explained the meaning of the proclamation saying, "God lost Adam and Eve's family. The tribe, people and nation including hell on earth and the world in heaven, which have become Satan's, must be resolved by connecting them to the family." (Materials provided by the FFWPU History Compilation Committee)

True Mother's Forty-Nation Speaking Tour Begins
(November 2, 1993 of forty nations)

On November 2, 1993, True Mother set off on her “True Parents and the Completed Testament Age” tour of forty nations. True Mother first spoke in Frankfurt, Germany. She called on women to take the lead in realizing God’s ideal. Her speaking tour ended in Taiwan on December 22, 1993. (Materials provided by the FFWPU History Compilation Committee)

The First Global Assembly for CARP University Students
(November 2, 1984, Little Angels Performing Arts Center)

Around 3,000 CARP members partook in the First Global Assembly for CARP University Students, which was held under the theme, “One World under God” from November 2 to 8, 1984. During the assembly, a symposium entitled, “University Student Values Regarding World Peace,” a friendship ceremony between Korean and Japanese students and a sports festival to bring about harmony and unity among the global CARP membership were held. It was during this assembly that Moon Hyo-jin was appointed as the World CARP president. (Materials provided by the FFWPU History Compilation Committee)

Establishment of the Inter-Denominational Christian Association
(November 7, 1966, A-seo-won, Jung-gu, Seoul)

A ceremony marking the foundation of the Inter-Denominational Christian Association was held on November 7, 1966 at A-seo-won, in Jung-gu, Seoul. This was the result of the Christianity based inter-denominational activities that had been held since 1965. True Father said, “If a hundred members become people central to creating harmony, they can be remembered by Heaven. To bring about harmony, inter-denominational activities must be carried out to a degree where one would even fall into debt for it.” When first established, it was launched under the name the “Christian Inter-Denominational Movement Headquarters” but was renamed the “Inter-Denominational Christian Association” eight years later in October 1974. (Materials provided by the FFWPU History Compilation Committee)

