

True Father: The Heavenly person loves the people in hell, and when we practice that, that is Heaven

Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some inspiration, based on the words of True Father, True Mother and Heung Jin Nim:

True Father: "The purpose of life is to occupy the love of God. If you do not occupy the love of God, even if you think you have achieved all your hopes, you have not achieved anything." [1]

To occupy the love of God means to become people in the image of God, people who are an expression of God's heart and love, people who live God's life:

True Father: "You are living God's life and whatever you do and wherever you go, your entire purpose is to live as God, giving His way of life and His love." [2]

Loving the way God does, is the key point. Learning to love the way God does, is our true purpose, is the true purpose of our life. Only if we advance towards fulfilling that purpose, are we on the way to true and lasting satisfaction and happiness:

True Father: "Therefore the true measure of your happiness is whether you are close to the central standard of true love. Happiness or unhappiness cannot be determined by how much money you have, but only by the purity with which you exercise true love." [2a]

God's standard of love is the central standard of true love. This is the standard that all humankind needs to inherit. And "inherit" here means to develop. We need to develop that love in our heart, consciously and constantly. We need to make that our focus. It does not cost us any time. It is a matter of having the right heart, the right attitude, the right motivation while interacting with people. It does not cost time and energy. It rather saves time and energy.

While interacting with people, our focus needs to be investing of heart and love. It is all about investing, not about receiving. Constant investment of heart and love into people will get us to the goal:

True Mother: "Throughout his life, Jesus never said he wanted to receive love. Rather he said he came to serve, and that he would love even his enemies.

Without that kind of love, we cannot find the origin of peace; and without the origin of peace, we cannot establish a world of peace. The world of peace can never come to exist as long as we focus only on receiving love." [3]

As long as we worry about being loved and respected by others, we are not in line with true love. True love is not worried about receiving love and respect. True love is only interested in investing, in giving love, without expecting anything in return. True love is not frustrated when nothing comes back. It simply goes on, no matter what, not looking for love, but always trying to have an unconditional heart of love for everyone:

True Father: "When people curse me, I just forget it." [4]

Curses and insults or other unpleasant forms of behaviour cannot affect true love. They just bounce off.

How do we develop such an unchanging love in our heart? First we need to realize that we all are able to do this. It is the destination of all of us. And we need to understand and find out, in real life, that such love is the strongest force. It certainly brings God on the scene. We have to accumulate such experiences. They will empower us.

With the power of true we can become victorious in life, and happy and fulfilled as well. With such power we move the providence. Realizing all this, we find the motivation to focus on advancing in heart. And by asking True Father, Jesus and Heung Jin Nim to teach us love, we can speed things up.

What really matters is that we never stop investing heart into people:

Heung Jin Nim: "Never stop giving your heart for the sake of others!" [5]

And if our love is being given to everyone, even to the most hellish people, then we create heaven:

True Father: "The Heavenly person loves the people in hell, and when we practice that, that is Heaven." [6]

The "people in hell" are for example people with resentment, bitterness and hatred in their heart. We need to embrace them with our heart, just as everyone else.

By loving and embracing even such people, as a way of life, we are on the high road to becoming heavenly people, people who occupy the love of God and can guide others there, too. Nothing can be more precious than this.

Love from Bruno
