

True Mother: With true love we can achieve true peace

Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some inspirations, based on the words of True Father, True Mother and Heung Jin Nim [in spiritual world]:

True Father: "If we have God's love, we are happy; we feel secure and fulfilled. With such love, though one may be in a low position, he or she still can love those in the upper class, and those who are affluent can love those in the lowest positions. In this way God's love is infinitely free." [1]

The more we embody true love, the more we can respect, embrace and love all kinds of people. A poor person will be able to love and embrace a rich person, instead of developing envy, hatred or resentment. A rich person will not look down upon a poor one, but rather wants to embrace and uplift him or her. Both, poor and rich, want to be a blessing for the other.

The same applies of course for people of different race, religion, culture, character etc. For true love all this is pretty irrelevant. True love does not worry about it, but goes beyond all barriers:

True Father: "Nothing can compare to the value of true love. It has the power to dissipate the barriers fallen human beings have created, including national boundaries and the barriers of race and even religion." [2]

Even the barriers between enemies will be broken down by true love:

True Mother: "In other words, true love is to love even someone who seems impossible to love, and thus, in true love you have no choice except to love even your enemies. Furthermore, true love is the sacrificial love of even giving one's own life for others. Therefore, in true love the antagonisms and conflicts among individuals and among societies or nations are completely transcended and dispersed. With true love we can achieve true peace." [3]

True Mother: "When you really come to feel God's heart, how could you possibly seek revenge? When you come to know God's heart, you want to help your enemy instead. Only then can you focus on love, which is the great road of the law of nature, and can you travel that great road which embraces all as one. Only then will heaven and earth move in unison, and will God shed tears. He will be delighted because you resemble Him." [4]

Becoming able to love even enemies is really the point where the Kingdom of God starts:

True Father: "The person who loves his or her enemies will march in the vanguard and carry the flag of the most exalted prince [princess]. How noble that person is! He or she can leap over national and racial boundaries. On the day you live with a heart to love your enemies, all barriers will fall, the history of the providence of restoration will be shortened, and heaven will come near. My philosophy is that simple." [5]

It is extremely important for us to develop such a quality of love:

True Father: "True love transcends everything. It goes beyond all visible barriers. Where true love exists, nothing else matters." [6]

In the presence of true love all barriers simply collapse and the Kingdom of God can come:

True Father: "In the ideal world of blessed families based on true love, there can be no barriers of nationality, race or religion." [7]

In the ideal world all people embody the love of God. That is why there cannot be barriers or conflicts in that world. To establish that world, we need to focus on what is most important:

True Father: "You must make daily efforts and struggle to overcome the limitations of your heart." [8]

Heung Jin Nim: "It is your job to go forward, and this is not just an external responsibility; it is not just obedience to Father's latest project. It is going forward in your hearts..." [9]

Advancing in heart and true love is the real key for world peace as well as for the establishment of God's Kingdom. Every single day of our life, in every encounter with people, we need to create victories of heart, big or small. This way we advance in heart and love. This way we bring God into our life and into the world. This way we create success and lasting happiness.

Whatever happens, we need to make sure that advancing in our own heart remains our daily focus. It is easy to lose this focus. So we need to train ourselves to always keep focused. If we do that we will find out for ourselves that we are more successful in everything as long as we have that focus.

Love from Bruno
