

True Father: Where true love exists, nothing else matters

Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some inspiration, based on the words of True Father:

True Father: "In the ideal world of blessed families based on true love, there can be no barriers of nationality, race or religion." [1]

If the fall would not have happened, the world would never have seen different nations, different races, different cultures and different languages. The world would have never seen religions, either.

All this is the result of the separation of God and humankind, resulting from the fall.

Since God never gives up his original ideal, it stands to reason that the future world will be in accordance with the world that would have emerged, if the fall would not have happened. The future world will be the world of God's design, a world without barriers and borders, without conflicts and sin:

True Father: "Antagonism and jealousy cannot be found in that world.." [2]

And that is no surprise, because the ideal world is the world full of love:

True Father: "Heaven is a world full of people who were all born through true love, who live in the embrace of true love, and, following the track of true love, finally pass on into the next world..."

Heaven is the world filled with the air of true love... It is a world where life throbs with love at any place at any time... It is a world that is governed only by true love, the love that is God's essence." [2]

Such a world can only be achieved through true love:

True Father: "The value of true love lies in its power, which is strong enough to eradicate the walls of national, racial and religious borders..." [2]

True Father: "True love transcends everything. It goes beyond all visible barriers. Where true love exists, nothing else matters." [3]"

This world starts in our heart, as soon as we make constant effort to advance in heart and love. It starts as soon as we break down all the barriers in and around our heart, that try to stop us to become people who can love like God and who can go beyond all barriers, including barriers of resentment and hostility.

True love will certainly bring about the ideal world. The tradition and practice of true love is by far the most important thing, because it is the tradition of God and True Parents:

True Father: "I want to see love in you that is not self centred, love that branches out to embrace your family, society, nation, world and God. As long as we have the right spirit of love it doesn't make any difference whether the World Mission Center, the News World Building and Belvedere are all blown up and nothing remains. With the right tradition we have everything. This is the only thing we want to keep and hand down from generation to generation." [4]

With the right tradition of love we can bring about God's Kingdom. The establishment of this tradition is what God is waiting for:

True Father: "Only one promise can inspire God: "I have decided to be a sacrifice in order to establish the TRADITION OF YOUR LOVE. I have been trying to live for others. All I want to do is continue living this way." Then God will reply: "Oh, I understand you well. You have accomplished the principles of loyalty, filial piety and fidelity."

Otherwise you have no true pride before God, even though you work hard witnessing and fundraising." [5]
