

True Father: Our life on earth is the training ground of true love

Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some inspiration, based on the words of True Father and True Mother:

True Father: "How can we say that a person is valuable? Only by seeing the quality of his/her love". [1]

We all have inherited from God all the potential to become one with God in heart, to resonate with His love. This is God's first blessing: "Be fruitful!"

Because mankind entered Satan's lineage as a result of the fall, we needed to be reborn into God's lineage first, to be able to reach oneness with God in heart. Through the marriage blessing of True Parents we can link to God's lineage and thus be reborn.

We are challenged to reach higher and higher levels of heart and love all the time. Our life on the earth is our training ground. We are here for a clear purpose:

True Father: "The person who possesses true love possesses the universe, and thereby has dominion over the universe. Our life on earth is the training ground of true love. We are now living in this training ground." [2]

Every situation should be used for love training:

True Father: "The person who ignores the value of each and every moment to love will lose what is truly precious." [3]

With other words, if we use every opportunity to love, our life will become truly precious. We will become the most valuable people. We will gradually become True Parents ourselves:

True Father: "Mother and I are not going to be the only True Parents. My goal is to make all of you True Parents. It is the greatest honour that I can give to you." [4]

True Mother: "It is God's wish and dream (for you) to become humankind's visible True Parents." [5]

Love training is not only doing something external for someone else. It is an internal path. It is to always try to be a blessing to others, in all kinds of ways. It is first and foremost a matter of having a loving attitude towards other people. Are we trying to be kind and patient to others, even they are not? If others offend or attack us, do we become angry, hit back and become resentful? Or do we ignore it all, keeping the right loving heart towards them anyway? Are we condemning those who made or make mistakes, judging them, or do we love and embrace them no matter what, thus resonating with God? Do we try to get the admiration of others, or are we humble, putting others up while keeping a low profile ourselves?

There are many situations where we are challenged in many ways, where one -- understandably -- could easily react wrongly. If we react wrongly, that means if our attitude becomes self centered instead of true love centered, we do not make things better, but worse. And we cannot grow. We will stagnate and lose God's support.

So we need to always have the growth of our love on the forefront of our mind. Then, gradually, after some time, even in quite challenging situations, we can keep the right heart and grow. And we will also notice that almost miraculously things work out much better:

True Father: "My only principle is to live for the sake of loving mankind and God. When I act out of love, I find that somehow things get done. From experience I know that love is the greatest power." [6]

We certainly can make the same experiences. Especially if we focus on spreading love, keeping a loving heart, no matter in what situations we are. We will realize, that keeping our mind focused on true love brings God on the scene, and we get help, like from invisible hands.

That is the point where we really get excited about living in the ways of true love. That is the point where nothing can stop us, because we are in the process of finding the greatest treasure:

True Father: "You must go and find the way to true love. I am the forerunner along this way and you are following..."

Do you think it is necessary to make a great amount of noise or put on a great show for other people? What do you think? No, you don't need any cheerleaders around you. This is a path which you have to go all by yourself. It is an internal path which is very lonely at times. But knowing that you are moving toward the greatest treasure, you can have the greatest satisfaction going this way." [7]
