Schools of Africa Project Continues to Impact Thousands!

Thanks to many generous donors in 2023 and 2024, this month WFWP USA was able to send $37,000 to 5 schools which are part of the Schools of Africa Project. You are having a huge impact in the lives of women, men, and children seeking a quality education and improve their future. We're pleased to share with you how these donations are being used and a few testimonies from those who love and have benefited from these schools.

Through Resilience with Love

This month's HerStory Award honored two women: Carla J. Snyder and Attorney Shamika Askew. Askew shared that her core value of strengthening and empowering women is reflected in her commitment to mentor the younger generation of women to ensure that they do not go through the same struggles that she did. Snyder shared that "we are here because of the building blocks in our life and although many of them might have been challenging, it is what we learn from them that is most important."
