Dear,

We're proud to share one of the year's most impactful initiatives: the Global Women's Peace Network (GWPN). This network has brought together women across the nation and the globe, building a future where women lead in promoting peace, education, and empowerment.

This year alone, the GWPN has achieved incredible milestones:

- 70 community initiatives across the USA, each promoting peace through local projects and education inspired by WFWP's peace philosophy.
- Empowered 100+ new women leaders, expanding our network to uplift women's voices in peacebuilding and decision-making.
- Hosted programs that emphasize the central role of women in creating a harmonious, inclusive society.

Inspired by the vision of our founder, Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, we believe in the transformative power of women's leadership. As she said:

“The time has come for the true power of womanhood to save the world.”

We’re calling on you to be part of this mission. This season, help us reach our $25K goal to expand the Global Women’s Peace Network. Your gift will directly support our initiatives to educate, empower, and inspire women as peacebuilders in their communities.

Join us in making a lasting impact. Your support makes all the difference, helping us build a future where women lead with compassion, courage, and vision.
