Father's Teachings about Israel

Jewish Brethren: On September 18, 1976, at our God Bless America Festival at the Washington Monument, in the presence of an estimated 300,000 people; we stated:

[Judaism, Christianity and the Unification Movement] are indeed three brothers in the Providence of God. Then, Israel, the United States and Korea, the nations where these three religions are based must also be brothers. Because these three nations have a common destiny representing God's side, the Communist bloc as Satan's representative is trying to isolate and destroy them at the UN.

Therefore, these three brother nations must join hands in a unified effort to restore the United Nations to its original purpose and function. They must contribute internally to the unification of world religions and externally to the unification of the world itself. SMM, December 1976, Belvedere N.Y.

Hello,

Hyung Jin Nim started his sermon by discussing how Americans became skeptical about government pronouncements during the Covid lockdowns. We should remember what George Washington said, "Government is not reason, it is not eloquence-it is force! Like fire it is a dangerous servant and a fearful master; never for a moment should it be left to irresponsible action."

Margaret Sanger and the Eugenics movement targeted the Black community through the Iron triangle of key leaders, specifically the pastor, city officials, and civil rights leaders. Even though the Black community doesn't like transgender agenda, etc. it has been voting Democrat for more than 6 decades.

Mike Johnson, the new Speaker of the House, came out from nowhere, but he is a strong Christian who supported Trump. Even Republicans talking about over-policing.

True Father spoke to the elder President Bush and warned him against launching a war against Iraq since he foresaw that it could turn into a war between Islamic and Christian nations. It so grieved him that True

Father had to go to the hospital.

We condemn the Hamas attack on Jews, who obviously have the right to defend themselves and their nation, but before it escalates to WW3, the Israeli government should explain how this was able to happen.

He then discussed a series of passages where Jesus and the early Christians expressed their frustration and anger at the Jewish leaders for their hard-heartedness and rejection of the Gospel.

Both Christians and Jews have to repent and find a stronger relationship with Jesus and True Father. We should pray that the current Israel comes to welcome Christ.

Just like America and Korea, there is 5% responsibility. But now with war escalating in the Middle East we must be very careful. With the way World War 3 is escalating, it's very possible that Korea will have national judgment. Just like Israel in 70 A.D.

True Father's Statement about Judaism and Israel, Dec. 1976

Jewish Brethren: On September 18, 1976, at our God Bless America Festival at the Washington Monument, in the presence of an estimated 300,000 people; we stated:

[Judaism, Christianity and the Unification Movement] are indeed three brothers in the Providence of God. Then, Israel, the United States and Korea, the nations where these three religions are based must also be brothers. Because these three nations have a common destiny representing God's side, the Communist bloc as Satan's representative is trying to isolate and destroy them at the UN.

In the course of their history the people of Israel and Korea have experienced suffering and persecutions by neighboring enemies and expanding imperialistic powers.

As a son of the Korean people, living in this blessed by God land of America, I extend to you, Jewish Brethren, my hand of friendship and wish to state the principles which are guiding the activities of our Movement, especially those regarding the problems and difficulties confronting the Jews of the World and Israel at this crucial juncture of our common human history.

1. The Unification Movement categorically condemns anti- Semitism, the most hideous, abject and cruel form of hatred. We regard the murder of six million Jews in Europe the result of political short-sightedness and lack of moral responsibility on the part of Germany's political and religious leaders, and statesmen from among other nations, in the period between the Two World Wars.

2. The Unification Movement recognizes the divine and natural right of the Jewish people to physical survival and preservation of its specific religious traditions, the marks of its distinctive historical entity. These fundamental human rights must be secured everywhere, especially for Jews living in the lands of the Diaspora.

3. The Unification Movement regards the Land of Israel as a haven for the Holocaust survivors and sanctuary for all those individual Jews who are trying to escape physical persecution and religious, racial or national oppression. The demand for free emigration--the undeniable and inalienable right of every human being--must become the stated policy of the United States in her dealings with foreign countries, and particularly in her relations with the Soviet Union.

4. The Unification Movement, in its efforts to resolve conflicts among nations and harmonize antagonistic social- economic and political interests, will work toward the creation of political conditions necessary for an acceptable accommodation between the Arabs and Jews, and to achieve a genuine and lasting peace in the Middle East, one of the most important corners of the world.

5. The Unification Movement believes that religious and free people throughout the world must cooperate in building a spiritual and organizational unity among nations which will be capable to contain Soviet imperialism, which continues to inflict hardship and suffering upon its own people and is spreading the poison of hatred and dissension among nations of the world, with the ultimate purpose of political global subjugation and enslavement.

6. The Unification Movement is grateful to God, to His true and righteous prophets and saints of our common spiritual tradition who prepared the foundations on which we stand and organize our struggle. We consider ourselves to be the younger brother of our Jewish and Christian brethren, all of whom are children of our Heavenly Father. We regard it as our duty to respect and serve the elder sons of our Father, and it is our mission to serve Judaism and Christianity by promoting Love and Unity among all the children of God.

7. The Unification Movement teaches the Principle and strives toward the establishment of a Unified World Family of Nations guided by the concepts of Unity and Brotherhood expressed in the Divine Commandments, the foundations of our common spiritual heritage. It is our conviction that we must unite in order to attain this Divine and Sublime Historical Objective.

"What do Rabbis teach today about Jesus?"

On a website called "My Jewish Learning." Here is some of what is stated about Jesus: "The short answer: Judaism does not consider Jesus to be a prophet, the Messiah, or the son of God.

In the Middle Ages, when many Jews in Europe were experiencing rampant persecution, Toledot Yeshu, a series of derogatory and inflammatory legends about Jesus' life, became popular within some Jewish communities. Today, as Jews and Christians live in relative harmony, the attitude among most Jews towards Jesus is one of respect, but not religious reverence.

This attitude is reflected in Rabbi Irving Greenberg's book, For The Sake Of Heaven And Earth: The New Encounter Between Judaism And Christianity, where he refers to Jesus as a "failed messiah," instead of the usual term "false messiah."

He explains, "A failed messiah is one who has the right values and upholds the covenant, but does not attain the final goal." According to Rabbi Greenberg, the message Jesus brought was a good one, but he could not be the Jewish messiah because he did not shepherd in the redemption of the world that Judaism expects will occur in the messianic era.

This more respectful tone is common among Jewish leaders today."

Of course, most Christians believe that Jesus was/is the victorious Messiah, who completed EVERYTHING he was supposed to during his lifetime. Father's teaching about Jesus seems to be in the middle between the Christian and Jewish view: that Jesus was/is definitely the Messiah, but he was not able to complete his entire mission on earth due to the failure of central figures like John the Baptist. If he had, there would be no need for the Second Coming.

Since a Jewish website called "My Jewish Learning" honestly states that today's Jews don't believe that Jesus was a victorious messiah, but do "respect" him as "one who has the right values," it is not correct to ascribe to them views written by Jews in the Middle Ages in the midst of persecution. After all, most of today's Christians do not believe exactly the same things that Christians did a thousand years ago, do they?

In the US, Abroad, Praise for the Murderers

"generating death, adorning it, wearing it"

In one voice recording of a Hamas militant who used an Israeli victim's cellphone on October 7 to call his parents in Gaza, the fighter brags to his father that he is in Israel.

"I killed 10 with my bare hands," he says. "Their blood is on my hands, let me talk to Mom."

"May God protect you," his mother says, sobbing.

"Mom, your son is a hero. Kill, Kill, Kill," the fighter says, before his father takes back the phone.

We now know that it was not only the professional Hamas terrorists who were massacring innocent civilians, a mob of "ordinary Palestinians" from Gaza joined them in the attacks. Videos from communities of Be'erim, Nir Oz and others showed "dozens of ordinary-looking Gazans looting and taking part in killings..." according to videos and eyewitness accounts.

A former Israeli commando, Rax Cohen, survived Hamas' attack on the Nova music festival, where hundreds were killed. He said in the report he hid in a bush with friends for almost seven hours, and watched as "Gazan civilians," men "wearing Adidas and armed only with knives and axes," raped and murdered a woman. "They always laughed. I can't forget how they laughed."

I guess you would expect the Hamas terrorists, with the help of ordinary men from Gaza, to be proud of their handiwork in Southern Israel (1,400 tortured and murdered, hundreds taken captive) on October 7. After all, they are "heroes," with 72 virgins waiting for each one of them, but you would expect people around the world, regardless of their political views, to condemn the mass butchery, but you would be wrong.
