The Center of Christian Civilization

And the Lord had regard for Abel and his offering, but for Cain and his offering he had no regard. So Cain was very angry, and his face fell. The Lord said to Cain, "Why are you angry, and why has your face fallen? If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door. Its desire is contrary to you, but you must rule over it."

Cain spoke to Abel his brother. And when they were in the field, Cain rose up against his brother Abel and killed him. Then the Lord said to Cain, "Where is Abel your brother?" He said, "I do not know; am I my brother's keeper?"

Genesis 4:4-9

First is the ruin or the crisis in the Christian world. We must be responsible for the corruption in the Christian world. In this nation, not only the Christian ideology, which was the founding ideology of this nation is being corrupted, but also the families committed to that ideology are being corrupted, are collapsing. If families are collapsing, it means the nation is collapsing. The God-denying ideology of Communism is infiltrating the nation and undermining the hearts of the people and separating them from God. Those three important questions are the most crucial ones. SMM, Becoming A Responsible Person, 7.14,74

Hello,

Gregg Noll spoke about the ROI Freedom Festival appreciation dinner and those who volunteered to make it a success. Hyung Jin Nim has announced worldwide art competition to portray True Father's 3 deaths and resurrections centering on the "Airplane Torture" in the North Korean Hungnam Death Camp.

Biblical or Judeo-Christian culture is the foundation of Western civilization. Christmas is the celebration of the birth of Christ. Luke 2:8 tells us that shepherds were sleeping outside awaiting the birth of new lambs so it was probably in March or April.

Christians were called cannibals by the Romans because the scripture refers to the drinking of the blood and the eating of the flesh of the savior.

In our times, Leftists call Trump supporters and Christians "MAGA Cultists." Leftists in the 1970s and 80s called True Father and "the Moonies" a cult because of our anti-Communist stance. But he was vehemently against the Iraq War, knowing it could ignite a new holy war between Muslims and the Christian West.

ITV, the main private competitor to BBC, interviewed Hyung Jin Nim for its "Extreme Beliefs" series last week. The week before ITV had interviewed Dinesh D'Souza. We will release the whole interview when the ITV interview with Hyung Jin Nim airs.

Anyone who wants to disarm the population wants to impose tyranny. The right to bear arms is a fundamental God-given right, mentioned in Declaration of Independence and Bill of Rights.

He praised Pierre Tardy, Martha Tashiro, Caroline Burkholder, Kerry Williams, Anastasia Theodoropolous and others for fighting the transgender agenda. Hyung Jin Nim quoted Pres. Trump, who said that if you are raping children aka pedophilia you should get the death penalty. He made no reference to the LGBTQ community. The recent election of a more extreme Leftist Commissioner in Pike County can expose their agenda and lead to stronger conservatives who stand up for righteous values.

America tends to focus on the little baby in the manger whom we can control, not the strong alpha male who overthrew tables of the moneychangers. In Tennessee, we will begin training in shooting and Mixed Martial Arts competition teams as a way to showcase the heavenly culture. Christianity was a feminine culture of waiting for the Bridegroom to come. In the Completed Testament age, the Father has come, with a strong masculine culture. The queens are also training as well. Competition is a critical way to sharpen one another.

The church has become too feminized. Radical Islam is hyper-masculine. Mohammed was a warlord who executed 800 Jews. It imposes tyranny, not the heavenly kingdom aka Cheon Il Guk. True Father prophesied in 1979 that "Jihadis and Islam will be even worse."

World level kickboxer Andrew Tate speaks out against the weak feminist culture which demonizes strong men and condemns Christian marriage as an oppressive form of slavery. Love triangles in soap operas and K-drama are the core of the Archangel culture. Women are taught not to be thankful for a "boring" husband who is faithful to his wife, works hard to support his family. They are also taught that babies are a burden and will cost $1 million each.

In South Korea there is a 1.2 birth rate per woman, far below the 2.1 rate needed to replenish the population and compensate for those who pass on. But typical Christian dating culture in the U.S. promotes fornication and early sex.

One good trend is that more young "zoomers" are becoming conservative, seeking moral discipline and training for their bodies. Charlie Kirk, founder of Turning Point USA, who was a virgin until marriage, married a super model. Men who have sexual discipline are sought out. In marriage, sex is filled with joy, not anxiety or fear. Sex in the "furnace" of marriage warms the family. He is called "ultra conservative," but really that is just traditional Christian values. That is the Kingdom culture.

You have to give your youth to someone or something. You could give it to alcohol, drugs, and a licentious lifestyle or to your career or your professor. Thank God for True Father's Kingdom culture where I will give it to my spouse, who is Godly and pure.

The Bible says invest in your child. You are not losing. You are gaining if you invest properly. When Hyung Jin Nim reached 40, his knee and shoulder "exploded." He plans to start doing push-ups and knee-bends again starting tomorrow. The culture of the Father must be passed on, with discipline and boundaries. That is why goddess worship is banned. 95% of violence is by males. With no father in the home, there is no good example.

Jesus' SECRET Mission -- SHOCKING!

In Christianity, the woman is a "wife" to Christ, husband is a "son" to the Father. Hyung Jin Nim recommends the latest video by the 3rd King called Jesus' Secret Mission -- Shocking (see video above). It discusses the 80 biblical prophecies of the victorious messiah and only 3 about the suffering servant. At the 2nd coming Christ comes to rule a real kingdom.

Jesus had no power, just a few followers. His dying became the center of Christian civilization. He is the ultimate combat veteran, unjustly murdered as a federal felon. True Father said the center of the civilization is the Father-Son relationship which contains the promise of violence. I will fight my father's enemy. An 18-year-old Hawaiian high school student sang the song called "Monsters" by James Blunt. His father was on his death bed. He said to his father, "don't worry. Now is my time to fight those monsters."

Without this commitment by sons, the civilization will die, with no one to guard the females or the children. The psychotic males will come. The center of Christian civilization is the sacrificial love of the father. Once you defeat the enemy, you don't want to rape and pillage the enemy, you also have to love the enemy.

After the North beat the South in the Civil War, they could have disarmed the southern states. Instead they returned power and rights to the South over several decades.

Loving your neighbor is not just being "nice." It forbids you from becoming a tyrant, by taking their land. This Christian imperative saves civilization. That's why Christian cultures act differently, or try to, with more good people than bad. If citizens are armed, that acts as a deterrent, leading the government to respecting their sovereignty, their land, and their wives.

As described by former director of Romanian Intelligence, Ion Mihai Pacepa, Yasser Arafat was trained by the KGB at a special-ops school east of Moscow and groomed to be the future PLO leader in the mid-1960s. In March 1978 Pecepa secretly brought Arafat to Bucharest for final instructions on how to behave in Washington. "You simply have to keep on pretending that you'll break with terrorism and that you'll recognize Israel -- over, and over, and over," Ceausescu told him for the umpteenth time....

This video also explores the ongoing beliefs and goals of Islamic Terrorists which poses a real threat not just to the nation of Israel, but to the entire West.

RETURN OF THE GODS BOOK REVIEW

By William Brunhofer

Former Assistant Professor, Unification Theological Seminary

The Return of the Gods by Jonathan Cahn, was completed in 2022, the year Roe vs Wade was overturned by the US Supreme Court, and, two years after the 50th anniversary of the decision granting unlimited abortion on demand in the state of New York. For perspective, he says, in the Bible a 50th anniversary is also called a Jubilee year and stands for a "year of restoration, restitution, redemption, release, freedom, reversing and undoing," which according to tradition, comes 50 years from some major event or misdeed igniting tragedy. Thus, the prophet Jeremiah warned his nation that the shedding of children's blood would lead to judgment, and death to a future generation within the nation that murdered them in the form of a plague, or other calamity. Then, he surmises that "restitution" came to the US in the Jubilee year of 2020, when Covid 19 came to America and the world!

The connection between what happened in 2020 and 1970 when American's began legally embracing abortion, was "stunning and eerie," writes the author. He continues, "In the year of Jubilee, if you took what did not belong to you, that which you took would be taken from you. America had taken life. Thus, in the year of Jubilee, life would be taken from America."

Cahn shows that the Bible describes in many places how ancient Israel had frequently turned away from Yahweh, God, and worshipped other gods: what has been called the 'Dark Trinity' of Baal, the Possessor; Ishtar, the Enchantress; and Molech, the Destroyer, who was associated with the "darkest of sins – the sacrifice of human beings. And even darker . . . the sacrifice of children by their parents," described as "the most grievous of 'abominations' . . . the sign of a nation that has turned entirely against the ways of God and become lost to Him."

THE RETURN OF THE GODS BY JONATHAN CAHN - BOOK REVIEW

Bill Brunhofer

Published: December 19, 2023

By William Brunhofer

Former Assistant Professor, Unification Theological Seminary

The Return of the Gods by Jonathan Cahn, was completed in 2022, the year Roe vs Wade was overturned by the US Supreme Court, and, two years after the 50th anniversary of the decision granting unlimited abortion on demand in the state of New York. For perspective, he says, in the Bible a 50th anniversary is also called a Jubilee year and stands for a “year of restoration, restitution, redemption, release, freedom, reversing and undoing,” which according to tradition, comes 50 years from some major event or misdeed igniting tragedy. Thus, the prophet Jeremiah warned his nation that the shedding of children’s blood would lead to judgment, and death to a future generation within the nation that murdered them in the form of a plague, or other calamity. Then, he surmises that “restitution” came to the US in the Jubilee year of 2020, when Covid 19 came to America and the world!

The connection between what happened in 2020 and 1970 when American’s began legally embracing abortion, was “stunning and eerie,” writes the author. He continues, “In the year of Jubilee, if you took what did not belong to you, that which you took would be taken from you. America had taken life. Thus, in the year of Jubilee, life would be taken from America.”

Cahn shows that the Bible describes in many places how ancient Israel had frequently turned away from Yahweh, God, and worshipped other gods: what has been called the ‘Dark Trinity’ of Baal, the Possessor; Ishtar, the Enchantress; and Molech, the Destroyer, who was associated with the “darkest of sins – the sacrifice of human beings. And even darker . . . the sacrifice of children by their parents,” described as “the most grievous of ‘abominations’ . . . the sign of a nation that has turned entirely against the ways of God and become lost to Him.”

Could there then be, he asks, this same embodiment of negative spiritual energy at work behind the sign of the rainbow, for example, saturating the halls of our educational institutions, public libraries, museums, and other places within our civic, entertainment, and sports culture today? Indeed, could these invisible spiritual beings be the animating spirit behind the radical changes we see manifested all around us, and altogether, the unseen movers and catalysts of our modern culture? But how is it that this ancient power, which so possessed the ancient world and nations like Israel, Babylon, the Assyria, et al, a graphic part of our historical record, has now suddenly come to possess our own country and the modern world? Here Cahn leads the reader through the Biblical record which finds Molech, the “principality most especially bound to and behind abortion.”

In his quest to uncover the power or forces behind these “other gods,” Cahn identifies that the Bible refers to the “principalities” in both the OT and NT, include Ep 6:2 “For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the rulers of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places.” Thus, Cahn takes us into the depths of these spiritual forces and their modern-day manifestations in our daily lives and the world around us in order that we might more deeply appreciate that there is a very real spiritual aspect to our lives and human dynamics which is more than meets the eye. “Only by more deeply understanding these principalities and forces and their origin, how they are working in our lives and culture,” he affirms, “can we arm ourselves to unite for good through prayer, repentance, a true turning back, true change, and true spiritual revival.”

During this unveiling chapter by chapter, Cahn confronts what have been hitherto considered sacred cows straightforwardly addressing the “most radical and controversial issues of our time, the front lines of cultural upheaval, the catalytic forces that are now transforming society, civilization, history and life.” All, “illuminated by the light of the ‘mystery’ that goes back ages, to ancient times.”

Then Cahn turns to recognize that the Supreme Court ruling on January 24, 2022 represented a turning back of Molech. It was an act of life against death. It was an act against the gods, the breaking down of their alters,” the author says. “It is a time to be strong and of good courage . . . to be bold . . . let go of all the fear and concern and take a stand against the darkness and for the light . . . for greater, much greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world.”

So, now in America we are witnessing a beginning of the “removal and breaking of Molech’s modern-day alters.” But whether this is a sign of revival and the beginning of a nation’s return to God, a step toward restoration . . . “or an “anomaly over which the nation will further divide as it continues its fall from God,” is in our hands. Simply put, a blessing or curse is always in our hands to control. The “changing of laws will, in the end fail, if there is not also the changing of hearts. And the changing of hearts comes from God and through revival,” Cahn concludes.

This remarkable book is a reminder that there is something more to our physical reality accessible through our 5 physical senses, a parallel reality, you might say, assessable through our non-physical senses, namely intuition, inspiration, dreams, or as some say, gut feelings about something or a 6th sense. Indeed, Cahn asks the question: “Is it possible that the ancient entities known as the “gods” are more than fiction as many believe (eg, entities referred to by ancient inscriptions found in surviving records of the Middle East life, art and culture),” and possess an independent reality?

Many today are asking, what are the various forces at work within us and the world around us, physical and spiritual? What are the non-visible forces at work which inform and guide our thoughts and feelings, desire and hopes, our faith in the seen and the unseen? And if we concede that there is, indeed, a spiritual aspect to human life and that being human means that we are both an integrated physical and spiritual being, then we are led to appreciate that we are always connected to this spiritual realm of life that transcends the 5 physical senses. And we can also observe that our way of thinking leads us into a constant give and take relationship with others within this realm through our thoughts and emotions, physically and spiritually. Thus, we can appreciate that we empower, through our free will, that which we make our ultimate concern, and those with whom we make relationship. And conversely, our minds and emotions, our worldview and core beliefs are shaped by these relationships.
