Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. John 15:13

When a nation places its self-interest first, it will not be able to lead the world. Therefore, we need a people or a nation who are willing to sacrifice for a higher purpose and strive to build or become an ideal nation that embraces the entire world.

With this view, in response to the call of God, I came to this country, the United States of America. I have been making my utmost effort to revive America, by educating the youth for a country that is faced with a moral crisis and declining Christianity.

You might be curious about what I am teaching to them. It is actually simple. First, it is "to live for the sake of others." More specifically, my teaching is that the individual lives for the family, the family for the society, the society for a people, a people for a nation, a nation for the world and the world for God. Then, God will come to us. SMM, "The

Dear

The first annual Rod of Iron Freedom Festival was very meaningful and exciting, with several thousand attending over the two days. A number of patriotic, faithful "men and women of action" spoke about the need for Christians to be brave in confronting evil. The master of ceremonies was Joey Gibson, founder of Patriot Prayer, a millennial who has been standing up against ANTIFA's intimidation and violence against conservative and faith-based events in Portland, OR and Berkeley, CA.

Quoting Thomas Jefferson, he said "Rebellion against tyrants is obedience to God." He spoke out against milk-toast Christianity, about the need for Christians to be warriors and overcoming the fears that block us from taking action. He told about the atheist who died and went to the spirit world who was asked by God, "why didn't you believe in Me?" The atheist responded, "why did you allow all the injustice and suffering that exists in this world? God responded, "that was why I sent YOU to make those wrongs right!"

Day 1, Rod of Iron Freedom Festival (10/12/19)

Other speakers included: Justin Moon, founder of Kahr Arms, who spoke about his father, Rev. Sun Myung Moon creating a weapons factory to assist the defense of South Korea from the threat of an invasion and The Washington Times, to educate the American people about the need for Americans to be strong to confront the threat of Communism.

Alan Gottlieb, founder of the Second Amendment Foundation, spoke on the assault on First and Second Amendment rights as well as reasons to be hopeful and mobilized in the 2020 elections.

John "TIG" Tiegen, U.S. Marine Corps veteran, survivor of the 2011 Benghazi attacks and co-author of the book "13 Hours: The Inside Account of What Really Happened in Benghazi," spoke about the need for patriotic groups to overcome their differences and work together to defend our 1st and 2nd Amendment rights.

Pastor George Cook introduced Hyung Jin Nim, who explained that "good men with guns," ie. American soldiers, liberated his father, True Father Sun Myung Moon, from the Hungnam Death Camp in North Korea. We are each called as co-heirs of Christ, to rule with Christ as "poimano" or caring shepherds to protect our flocks. He spoke about 10 reasons the Founding Fathers fought against a tyrannical King and established a nation which allowed its citizens to become kings over our own lives and property.

On the second day of the Freedom Festival, Craig Sawyer, founder of Veterans for Child Rescue, spoke about child sex trafficking in America, the "fastest growing criminal enterprise on earth." In the 1940s and 50s Alfred Kinsey gained fame and influence with his fraudulent research that normalized adult-child sex. An upcoming documentary called "Contraland," will expose the crime spree that exploits our children. His own daughter was taken at knife point and raped for hours. When she escaped, she committed herself to actively pursue sexual predators as a junior decoy agent. Just a few months ago her kidnapper and rapist was sentenced to 68 years in prison, basically a life sentence.

She said, "taking action against these child predators is more healing than any therapy!"

Day 2, Rod of Iron Freedom Festival 10/13/19

Hyung Jin Nim discussed how America's identity is rooted in the Bible. It is shocking how so many young Americans say they prefer socialism. Visitors from other countries don't have the rights that Americans take for granted. We must strengthen the culture of the responsible armed citizen. He thanked those veterans who fought to liberate Korea and other nations. Without them, he would not even have been born.

In the Gospel of John, Jesus said, "there is no greater love than this, to lay down one's life for his friends." All armed defenders take an oath to be willing to risk their lives to take violent action to save others. Jesus exemplified this when he made a whip and assaulted the money changers who were desecrating the Temple.

The fear of God is the beginning of wisdom and morality. He challenged the listeners to consider what it means to be a co-heir, king and priest of the Almighty.

Public education teaches that we must be subservient to a master class and system, which is based on materialistic teachings like Charles Darwin's theory of evolution, leading to cultural and moral relativism. It is regrettable that even many practicing Jews and Christians accept Darwin's materialistic theory of evolution.

10/14/2019 CIG Book of Life Registration Blessing

In the 20th century alone, atheistic, secular governments murdered more than 260 million of their own citizens. Karl Marx, the leading theorist of Communism, dedicated his book, Das Kapital, to Darwin. It is shocking that top leaders in the U.S. and the founders of Google and Facebook are colluding with Red China and even admire it as a successful model of social engineering and population management.

Finally he explained "8 Reasons Why Darwin Was Wrong" (discussed in 2 chapters in his new book, "Our Father Forsaken: the Abandonment of the God of the Old and New Testaments.")

Alan Kwon, a Sanctuary brother from Hong Kong, spoke about the struggle for freedom against Red China despite the fact that Hong Kong citizens only have umbrellas to defend themselves against often brutal Communist soldiers sent to silence them.

On the next day, a beautiful and moving Cheon Il Guk Book of Life Registration Blessing ceremony was held at the Sanctuary Church involving 13 Second Gen couples on location and many more participating through the Internet!

Our Father Forsaken Endorsements

“ Fresh after the success of Rod of Iron Kingdom, Sean Moon's formidable biblical defense of the 2nd Amendment, in Our Father Forsaken, he explores the historical erosion of faith that has culminated in today's cultural onslaught against the eternal values that made us a Godly nation. Sean Moon takes lethal aim at the dark philosophical forces which have been supplanting biblical, moral imperatives with an ever-astonishing parade of horrors demanded by the fierce egalitarianism of our time. Our Father Forsaken is an explosive, hold-no-prisoners, shot across the bow in a growing battle to reclaim family, faith and freedom in the 21st century. ”

“ In the book Our Father Forsaken, author Sean Moon breaks down many of the ancient heresies in a way that equips the body of Christ to avoid and overcome the great deception that occurs in the last days. As we move closer to the release of the spirit of the Antichrist, this book provides some powerful tools in order to strengthen the faith of the saints. The Bible encourages us to understand the devices of the enemy, and I think that this book does just that. This is a must read for anyone that wants to exercise dominion power over the end times "great deception" that the Bible warns us of. ”

“ Sean Moon presents a timely work that is sorely needed at a pivotal moment in our world. Our Father Forsaken offers a frank, biblically based reminder of why our society will fall into chaos and lawlessness if we continue to ignore the principles found in God's Word, and follow the deceptions found in man's folly. ”

A Peek Inside

Selection from CHAPTER ONE: THE FIRST HERETIC

Marcion explained the Old Testament in its literal sense and rejected every allegorical interpretation. He recognized it as the revelation of the creator of the world and the god of the Jews, but placed it, just on that account, in sharpest contrast to the Gospel. He demonstrated the contradictions between the Old Testament and the Gospel in a voluminous work (TheAntithesis). In the god of the former book he saw a being whose character was stern justice, and therefore anger, contentiousness and unmercifulness. The law which rules nature and man appeared to him to accord with the characteristics of this god and the kind of law revealed by him, and therefore it seemed credible to him that this god is the creator and lord of the world (kosmokratos). As the law which governs the world is inflexible, and yet, on the other hand, full of contradictions, just and again brutal, and as the law of the Old Testament exhibits the same features, so the god of creation was to Marcion a being who united in himself the whole gradations of attributes from justice to malevolence, from

—Adolf Von Harnack, History of Dogma, Volume I

Fifty years after the death of St. Paul, a charismatic preacher named Marcion appeared in Rome to proclaim the “hidden” meaning of the teachings of Jesus. His interpretation relied heavily upon the mystery religions that had spread throughout the Roman Empire during the early Christian era and the teachings of the Neo-Platonists. It centered on the concept of gnosis—the knowledge required for a soul to transcend the confines of matter.

According to Marcion, the exacting and wrathful deity of the Old Testament, whom he called the “Demiurge,” was not the God of the New Testament. Jesus, he insisted, bore witness to the unknown Supreme Being of Acts 17:23.<sup>1</sup> This higher God was a Being of pure light, the giver of eternity, and a fount of infinite mercy and goodness.

To establish his case, Marcion pointed to contradictions between the Old and New Testaments. Joshua, he argued, had the sun stopped in its tracks in order to prolong a battle against the Hebrew people, while Christ, through St. Paul, said: “Let not the sun go down on your wrath.” Elisha had commanded bears to attack children, while Jesus said: “Let the little children come unto me.” The Demiurge demanded an eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth,” while Jesus said: “Do not resist an evil person. If someone strikes you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also.”<sup>2</sup>

Surely, Marcion maintained, there is a cleft between the two testaments that cannot be breached. Since the God of Jesus is a God of pure light and perfect love, the entire Old Testament, which sanctions violence for the defense of home and hearth, must be discarded from the Christian canon....

Selection from CHAPTER 22: MAKE CHRISTIANITY BRAVE AGAIN

Norms that were accepted as common sense even ten years ago are increasingly against the law in the United States and other Western nations. To have traditional values regarding marriage and the existence of two biological sexes, or parental rights and responsibilities to oversee the upbringing and education of children, exposes adults to ostracism, professional disbarment, loss of employment, and even imprisonment.

If this massive social experiment continues, people of faith will have to choose whether to obey the State or to obey their conscience, regardless of the consequences. One would expect that the Christian community at large would be prepared to stand up and demand that their rights of religious freedom not be violated, but non-Biblical beliefs are widespread even among active Christians.

THE REVOCATION OF RIGHTS

diagnosis or due process.

Nearly two thousand years ago, the early Christians in Rome under the rule of Emperor Nero were martyred because of their unpopular beliefs. As described by the Roman historian Tacitus: “They were torn by dogs and perished, or were nailed to crosses, or were doomed to the flames and burnt, to serve as a nightly illumination, when daylight had expired.” If people of faith in America are intimidated into acquiescence, then where will persecuted Christians and members of other minority faiths find support and refuge? If the state continues to drive the acknowledgement of God and the practice of biblical Christianity from the public square, Christians will be faced with a choice, to be absorbed into the secular culture or to stand firm and suffer the consequences.

An anemic Christianity that rejects the God of the Old and New Testament while embracing an

As discussed in Chapter 10, government-enforced transgenderism is just the latest episode in the imposition of a post-Christian, Gnostic religion on the population. It is authoritarian because it has to be, since nature and common sense oppose it. Its dictates have not been chosen by popular vote, but enforced by unconstitutional edicts from unelected judges and leftist bureaucrats in the U.S. Departments of Education and of Health and Human Services, with the support of angry LGBTQ mobs who will shame and intimidate those who dare to challenge their claims. Ultimately, its dictates are backed by the power of government to imprison and even to use lethal force.

Since the founders of America knew that government has the potential to misuse its authority and power, they enshrined the right to own lethal firearms in the Second Amendment to the Constitution. Thomas Jefferson, in a December 20, 1787 letter to James Madison, said that the purpose of civilian arms was to be a check on government. He wrote, "What country can preserve its liberties if their rulers are not warned from time to time that their people preserve the spirit of resistance. Let them take arms."

But that right is increasingly under attack. In November, 2018, in Fernadale, Maryland, Gary Willis, a 61-year-old man was shot and killed by an officer trying to enforce the state's "red flag" law which allows the confiscation of firearms from gun owners who have not been convicted of any crime or lost their right by any due process. The "red flag" protective orders may be sought by family members, police, or others when the gun owner is perceived to be a danger to themselves or others. Willis' niece, Michelle Willis, said her uncle "likes to speak his mind. I'm just dumbfounded right now. My uncle wouldn't hurt anybody." Apparently, being outspoken in one's political views in the presence of family members or others can lead to confiscation of one's firearms, without a air-brushed, feminized Jesus is no match for the aggressive, militant atheism of our age, which leads to the torture and persecution of millions of Christians in Communist countries like North Korea and China, not to mention attacks by Islamists murdering thousands of Christians worshipping peacefully in their pews.

Watching silently, while tens of thousands of fellow believers are tortured or massacred, is not an act of love; it is an act of cowardice. As during the times of Nehemiah, Christians are called to rebuild vibrant communities of faith with one hand, and a weapon ready to use, if needed, in the other. It is time for followers of Christ to be brave again.
