Dear Women Leaders, Women of Peace and Mothers,

As we are celebrating Women's History Month 2021 we welcome you to join us at our upcoming Global Women's Peace Network speaker series, Women's Leadership in Reconciliation and Peacemaking, on "The Next Generation."

Focusing on uplifting the next generation of women, speakers will be identifying key social and emotional skills needed to influence positive change.

Join us to hear from women professionals who will present and answer your questions live. This event will feature a special modern Korean calligraphy performance with messages of empowerment for young women.

New to this program, participants will be interacting with one another in breakout rooms.

Register by clicking here for this event to be held on Friday, March 26, at 2 PM EDT! The webinar details required to join the session will be shared only to those who register.

If you know 2 or 3 close friends you think would benefit from a free uplifting session like this right now, forward this invitation to them!
