UNIVERSAL PEACE FEDERATION Seoul
WORLD SUMMIT 2017
Peace | Security | Human Development

Dear World Summit 2017 Participants,

We are pleased to welcome you to the 4rd World Summit on “Peace, Security and Human Development.” The World Summit is organized and sponsored by the Universal Peace Federation (UPF), an NGO in Special Consultative Status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations. The primary co-sponsors for the World Summit 2017 are the International Association of Parliamentarians for Peace (IAPP) and the Sunhak Peace Prize Foundation. Among the supporting partners are the Women’s Federation for World Peace, the Family Federation for World Peace and Unification, the Washington Times Foundation, and the Segye Times.

A highly selective group of delegates from around the world have gathered, including current and former heads of state and government, religious leaders, women leaders, and civil society leaders. We are particularly pleased to have several hundred current parliamentarians who support the work of the IAPP. Your participation in this important conference will help assure its success.

There is a growing awareness among people throughout the world of the urgent need for innovative vision and bold leadership if we are to resolve the critical issues of our time. With this in mind, the World Summit brings together world leaders whose individual and collective experience, wisdom and insight are needed if we are to build a world of peace and prosperity for all the world’s peoples.

The World Summit 2017 program will feature many distinguished keynote speakers and panelists, and we trust that the content will be informative and enriching. In addition to the World Summit program, all delegates are invited to attend, as special guests, the Sunhak Peace Prize Award Ceremony and the Inaugural World Assembly of the International Association of Parliamentarians for Peace.

Universal Peace Federation

Rev. Dr. Sun Myung Moon and Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, Founders, UPF International

The Universal Peace Federation (UPF) is a global network of individuals and organizations dedicated to building a world of peace centered on universal spiritual and moral values. UPF and its global network of Ambassadors for Peace bring universal, spiritual principles to the task of resolving conflict and reconciling the divided human family.

International Leadership Conferences, symposia, and peace councils offer opportunities for high-level consultations. These are complemented by “track two” diplomacy and grass-roots programs that build support for a culture of peace.

UPF is an NGO in Special Consultative Status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations. We support and promote the work of the United Nations and the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals.

Ambassadors for Peace

Launched in 2001, Ambassadors for Peace are the world's largest and most diverse network of peace leaders. They come from all walks of life representing all races, religions, nationalities, and cultures, and commit themselves to:

CORE VALUES: A LEGACY OF PEACE

The Sunhak Peace Prize was established to honor the lives and legacy of Rev. Dr. Sun Myung Moon and Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, both of whom devoted their lives to peace. In 2015, the Sunhak Peace Prize was awarded to President Anote Tong of Kiribati, for raising awareness about the devastating global impact of climate change, and to Dr. Modadugu Vijay Gupta of India, for being a leader in developing aquaculture, especially among the rural poor in developing nations. The peaceful world envisioned by humankind can only be built upon an all-encompassing foundation where peace among nations exists politically, militarily and religiously, and is realized by protecting family values, the sanctity of marriage, and the value of filial piety through the maturity of human character. The next Sunhak Peace Prize will be presented in 2017.
