

Call for Applications: Director of Unificationist Campus Life (CARP)

Victoria Roomet and Susan Bouachri
April 22, 2013

Wanted: Dynamic, campus-savvy, entrepreneurial individual to head up support for Unificationist Campus Life (must look good in a 6 ft. fish costume!)

Where: This is a national level responsibility—work out of CARP office in NYC—may be possible to work from second location near an active campus.

What: Work with national ministry team to facilitate communication with Unificationists of college age; Provide resources, ideas, best practices and networking for campus activities; encourage interaction between local pastors and college-aged Unificationists in their areas.

When: Full time, this position involves occasional travel, and frequent cups of coffee shared with awesome college students.

Why: to create a voice and be the representative of college-aged Unificationists at HSA Headquarters

Who: A well-organized college graduate, with ability to lead, communicate effectively, able to utilize social media, with previous experience in student life and management.

For full job description or to apply contact Victoria Roomet or Susan Bouachri. Deadline for applications is April 30, 2013 (yes, that's next Tuesday!)