

Taichung, Taiwan church recruits volunteers - holds Divine Principle Workshop

Mai-Hsien Chai
September 16, 2017

In Taiwan, Taichung church developed the witnessing model of recruiting volunteers for service projects and DP learning for years. They formed "Chin-Hsin Club (勤心社)" which is an active student's club and owns a good impression for School authorities and students in National Chin-Yi University of Technology. In new semester of September, three volunteer recruitment briefings meetings held by "Chin-Hsin Club" from 11-13 September, 200 freshmen participated in.

Then, they held first-level workshop on 15-16 Sept. and 34 freshmen attended and 20 family members served as coach to take care of the guests. It has a very good result for the guests to continue to learn DP in CARP center and do service projects. They will hold second workshop on 23-24 September. We can feel strong determination from church leader and members in order to bring breakthrough witnessing result by Foundation Day in 2018.