

Peace in Afghanistan starts in Austria

Meeting with leaders of Afghan organisations in Vienna, June 23, 2018

We invited Mr. Umberto Angelucci who had worked in Afghanistan for many years

First Secretary and Representative of the Bilateral Relations of the Afghan Embassy

He gave the Keynote Address.

There was a lively
Question-answer session afterwards, because Afghans don't have the opportunity often to meet the representative of the Ambassador

Two Afghan girls did an impressive Taekwon-Do demonstration

Moderation of the event

The elder sister of the Taekwon-do artists read a poem

UPF Principles of Peace lecture by Peter Haider

Umberto Angelucci shared his experiences of his work in Afghanistan

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF PARLIAMENTARIANS FOR PEACE

Afghanistan

Population: 33 million people
44% under 18 years old
Ethnicities: Pashtu, Tajiki, Hazara,
Turkmani, Uzbeki
GDP per capita: 300 USD

We could all enjoy Afghan cuisine prepared by a young refugee...

...and served by young missionaries

Group photo with the Afghan Embassy's Representative

Snapshots of the audience

Most of the photographs have been taken by him. He is a professional photojournalist

4
organisations and more than 40 guests attended.
They all had attended
True Mother's Speech at the Stadthalle

Video Interview

After the event Mr. Angelucci did a video interview with a representative of an Afghan TV station (fb group with 220 000 followers)

