#GIVINGTUESDAY

Giving Tuesday is Here!

It's an incredible day - a global day of giving. Think about that for a moment...All over the world, people like you and me are starting the end-of-year festivities with giving. Focusing on Living for the Sake of Others.

I love this time of year because there's so much LOVE, KINDNESS, and HOPE. Starting the holiday season with giving sets us on the right track, helps us cultivate a heart for others, versus just for ourselves.

Where will you give today?

Will you give to student leaders transforming campus culture through CARP?

Your support helps students like Marcus find a community that helps them thrive. How? By strengthening the local CARP chapters. That's what your donations provide: chapter support, leadership training, curriculum development, chapter visits, and more so that students can realize the joy of giving back.

Fill today (and this season) with joy, peace, and a culture of giving. Let's change the world by being models of peace. If you're on social media, feel free to use these hashtags to promote this culture:

Thank you and God bless!

Help Students BE THE LIGHT

that Shines on Campus...

School today is not what it used to be. Students experience pressure on all sides: academics, peers, family, society, etc. It's easy to get lost in the crowd, to not stand for the principles that matter. But principles, like "Live for the Sake of Others," DO matter. It matters that we think beyond our own self-interests. For students like Marcus, it's made all the difference in his growth, health, and outlook on life. Help more students like Marcus experience hope, freedom, and clarity.

Your donation sponsors CARP chapter support to empower students to BE THE LIGHT, in an often "gray," relativistic world. Your donations provide tools and trainings to students to articulate their principles in life so they can make a positive impact any place they go: at school, at home, with their families, at work, etc. Your investment in young people is an investment in the future.

Help students to BE THE LIGHT on college campuses - where ideas and principles are seeds that develop throughout life.

Make a difference to students like Marcus by donating today.
