True Parents have emphasized for many years the importance of learning Korean in order to understand the depth of their words. Many Unificationists worldwide are eager, but many do not have the time or resources. For those with a desire to learn, this new book and video series just might be the answer.

Benjy Uyama, a young Unificationist from North Carolina and author of "Mi-Re: Learn Korean in 40 Days", has created a Korean Language Tutorial Series on YouTube that guides readers through the book.

The book offers an insightful, structured and detailed process for learning True Parents' language in a short timeframe, and now with the video series it's even easier to find the resources and support needed when studying a new language. Benjy says his ultimate goal is to help people worldwide read and understand the speeches of True Parents.

True Father said, "Once you understand the Korean language I speak, you will be able to learn about things more deeply, and you will come to possess knowledge that is much more valuable than what you understand at the present time. Since learning in this way is much more important than anything else, we come to the conclusion that this is the way it should be."

The book uses words, phrases, and speeches of True Parents to help build vocabulary. Many have already found the book and series to be a wonderful resource. Takamitsue Sakuwa, a student of the book said, "This book explains well the importance of learning Korean and studying the Words of Rev. Dr. Sun Myung Moon and Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon in this new age after Foundation Day, while also making an easy read for the readers."

The book and complimentary video series promises to help the reader:

1. Understand True Parents' goal and purpose of learning Korean
2. Learn to read Korean
3. Learn the most frequently used unique words of True Parents, including the original Chinese characters
4. Learn the most essential Korean grammar structures

5. Fully understand The Family Pledge in Korean

6. Attain the ability to understand any speech by True Parents

Dr. Michael Balcomb, President of FFWPU-USA, commented, "These words are the key to the heart of the Divine Principle; and we should be able to master the essentials in just 40 days, using Benjy's simple method. He makes a case for starting small, focusing on the words and phrases that True Parents themselves used most often, most notably in the Family Pledge."
