There's no better way to connect with our Heavenly Parent this summer than at a youth camp near you! Nine camps are happening across the country, bringing together hundreds of young Unificationists for fun-filled activities, fellowship, and more.

From June 25 to July 1, One Heart Camp is being held at Camp Seely northeast of Los Angeles. The camp - open to middle and high school students as well as participants from around the country - will focus on True Parents' life course and exploring the identity of Unification-born youth. Pastor Kevin Thompson of the Bay Area Family Church will deliver the core message in addition to testimonies from various young adults.

Camp Aurora in New Hampshire is happening July 2 through 8 at the Geneva Point Center in Moultonborough. A youth, middle, and high school program will run concurrently, as participants enjoy building meaningful relationships while further developing their faith and exploring the great outdoors. "Campers are immersed in a supportive community as they begin to discover their unique contribution and gifts while surrounded by the beauty of nature," Camp Aurora organizers say. "Through memorable and profound experiences, campers are encouraged to develop a personal relationship with the Divine, deepen their understanding of the teachings of True Parents, and the value of spiritual traditions from around the world."

In Texas, Camp Lone Star is also taking place July 2 through 8 at the Morgan Family Ranch. This year's theme, "My Lighthouse: Becoming a Beacon of Love," encourages high school participants to "go in depth with the four great realms of heart," an organizer says. "We hope to guide our brothers and sisters in connecting to our Heavenly Parent through these stages, and when we inherit that love, we can be a beacon of light for our friends and family."

From July 3 to 25, the popular National Ocean Challenge Program (NOCP) is happening in Kodiak, Alaska. The 21-day program for ages 17 and older still has three participant spots available. Some highlights of the program include river fishing, beach bonfires with team reflections, a city and hatchery tour, and a fishing tournament with prizes.

While Camp Journey on the West Coast is scheduled for July 7 through 13 - for youth ages 13 to 18 from Washington, Utah, Colorado, Nevada, and Alaska - the weeklong EPIC workshop for high school and college students is happening July 9 to 16 at the Morning Garden property in Gloucester, Mass. The workshop, rooted in Divine Principle education, is a great opportunity for spiritual growth and self-reflection that has inspired many participants.

"I learned a lot, grew as a speaker, and grew in my conviction of this faith," shared a young Unificationist. "I [also] learned the stories of so many people around me ... [during] this amazing experience."

Camp Shehaqua, held at Hickory Run State Park in the Pocono Mountains of Pennsylvania, features two separate family camps running from July 23 to 28 and July 31 to Aug. 5. Assorted activities include volleyball, dodgeball, reflection time in nature, bonfires, and a talent show.

In the Midwest, Camp KOGAPE is happening July 30 through Aug. 5 at Camp Wyoming - a Christian retreat center in Jones County, Iowa. The intergenerational camp features a parents' retreat and family program. This year's theme, "God is Our Parent," helps participants bond over faith and fun group activities.

Project Orenda, a new camp this year, is a two-week national adventure camp for young Unificationists to experience the beauty of nature, grow their faith, and build lasting friendships. The program will run from July 15 to 30 and will start at Unification Theological Seminary.

The Southeast region doesn't currently have a dedicated summer workshop for youth. You can find more details, including camp registration deadlines, fees, and contact information here.

About Camp Aurora

Camp Aurora is a summer camp for young Unificationists and their friends where they can experience the heart of God in an inclusive and non-judgemental environment. Youth have the opportunity to make lasting friendships in an energized camp setting, gain a sense of belonging, and the freedom to explore practical spirituality. Campers are immersed in a supportive community as they begin to discover their unique contribution and gifts while surrounded by the beauty of nature. Through memorable and profound experiences, campers are encouraged to develop a personal relationship with the Divine, deepen their understanding of the teachings of True Parents and the value of spiritual traditions from around the world.

The Camp Grounds

Established in 1919 with the motto "From this place go forth and build a better world," the Geneva Point Center is a perfect setting for Camp Aurora and a great atmosphere for campers to explore their faith and build lasting friendships.

WHO WE ARE

Camp Lone Star is a youth leadership camp held every summer at Tejas Trails, Blanco, Texas. It is fully run by young adults and encourages spiritual growth and servant-leadership for young teens. The week-long camp includes various outdoor activities, lectures from guest speakers, opportunities for self reflection and personal goal setting, and building friendships.

OUR HISTORY

Camp Lone Star was founded in 2003 by Shin Chun Lee and Jena Choi, two young individuals wanting youth to understand and experience the heart and love of God and True Parents.

National Ocean Challenge Program

LEARN MORE!

"The ocean has been such a wonderful teacher for me in my life that I created the Ocean Challenge program to give young people the leadership training the ocean provides."

— SUN MYUNG MOON

NOCP MISSION STATEMENT

We empower future leaders to become true owners of God's Creation through ocean based educational and experiential activities rooted in the teachings of Father and Mother Moon.

OBJECTIVES

- Develop character and confidence through seamanship
- Experience the heart of stewardship
- Cultivate faith through experiencing God's love through nature

PROGRAM DETAILS

NOCP offers 3 different programs to select from for young adults ages 17+*

PARTICIPANT

JULY 3-25, 2023
21-DAY PROGRAM

NOCP offers a unique hands-on immersion experience of God's Creation for young adults in remote Kodiak, Alaska. With the ocean as the training ground, come develop character and confidence through seamanship, experience the heart of stewardship, and cultivate faith through experiencing God's love through nature.

NOCP seeks to continue Father and Mother Moon's tradition and legacy of growing the character and faith of young people through leadership training on the sea. Through internal guidance and connecting to their words and experience, participants have the opportunity to walk in Father and Mother Moon's shoes and experience all the lessons that the ocean has to teach.

Each morning begins with morning devotion and a morning service introducing the day's theme. Days are filled with activities in nature including full days on the ocean learning the basics of boating and fishing, and how to jig and troll for Pacific salmon, halibut, rockfish, and ling cod. Throughout the program, participants will rotate to each of our four boats, learning from the senior captains who spent many years with Father and Mother Moon. They'll share their stories and lesson and also their unique fishing styles. Each senior captain is supported by a captains-in-training (CIT). Evenings are filled with testimonies from local members, educational activities, and personal reflections. On Sundays, NOCP joins the local Kodiak Family Church for service and fellowship.

NOCP partners with local organizations and non profits to do service work related to marine stewardship and sustainability. Participants will also receive certification on "About Boating Safely" offered by the US Coast Guard Auxiliary and be certified in CPR/First Aid.

Other highlights of the program include river fishing, team reflection beach bonfires, hatchery tour, a Kodiak City tour, and an end-of program fishing tournament - with prizes!

There are only 20 participant spots available for 2022 so apply soon!

Participants must be age 17+ by program date.*

Staff Roles

TEAM LEADER

JUNE 28-JULY 31, 2023

35-DAY PROGRAM

This year we are seeking five team leaders who will work directly with the education coordinator to serve as an extension of our staff in an elder brother/sister role for a team of five participants.

Prior to NOCP they will join a programming call with staff to connect over the program's themes, the schedule, and their responsibilities. On-site, team leaders will facilitate team activities, lead small group morning devotionals, and lead team sharings each evening, checking in with the core staff after. The goal is to help provide personal care and support to the participants during the program.

We ask that team leaders come a week before the program starts to orient and help prepare. They'll stay a week after to debrief, breakdown and join the core-staff in a two-night overnight trip to connect in gratitude as staff.

Team leaders are primarily participants in that they will participate in all the activities and fishing. Priority will be given to team leaders who are alumni of NOCP. Having prior team leading experience is highly recommended.

There are 6 Team Leader spots available.

CAPTAIN-IN-TRAINING (CIT)

JUNE 25-JULY 31,2023

37-DAY PROGRAM

We are seeking four CITs to join our staff team, coming a week early to prepare for the program and staying a week after the program.

The primary intention of the CIT program is to provide a leadership training opportunity where the elder captains can pass on the heart and legacy of captaining to the younger generation, sharing their wealth of spiritual and technical experience. CITs will spend their prep-week beginning each day with morning devotions and guidance from their elders. Themes include the heart of being a leader, stewardship, and faith training on the ocean. CITs will also be instructed in the basics of boat preparation, safety, maneuvering, as well as charts, navigation, and fishing techniques. CITs will also enjoy an overnight fishing trip with the senior captains and staff in preparation for the program.

Prior to the program, CITs will be given prep materials to study and become familiar with. During the program, CITs will be paired with a senior captain whom they'll assist with boat preparation, maintenance, safety, and navigation. They'll also play a key role in teaching and supporting participants on the water. On land, they'll serve as an extension of our staff team, supporting the team leaders, activities, and education.

After the NOCP program, CITs will assist in hosting a local Family Ocean Challenge Day, and share reflections on the program.

There are 5 CIT spots available.

It is preferred that CITs:

• Have attended NOCP previously or have boating/captaining experience

• Have already taken the USCG Boating Safely course or equivalent

• Have their CPR/First Aid certification

Land & River Guide

History

The first Ocean Challenge program was initiated by Rev. Sun Myung Moon on July 1, 1981. The program was designed to cultivate faith and leadership by challenging participants to spend a summer fishing for Atlantic bluefin tuna. Rev. Moon designed the Good-Go boats, still used today.

Ocean Challenge instructed its participants in both the theoretical and practical aspects of boating and fishing.

Ocean Challenge was also unique in its strongly spiritual focus, encouraging participants to challenge their limitations and concepts of themselves, others, and God. There was also a strong emphasis on self-discipline, self-motivation, leadership, and meeting God on the swells of the ocean. The Ocean Challenge spirit motto was, "If God calls, I will go, no matter the circumstances."

When Rev. Moon started "Ocean Challenge Alaska" in 1986 in Kodiak, Alaska, he expressed that the Alaskan Spirit was as same as Ocean Challenge Spirit.

"I like to use the phrase "Alaska Spirit." By this I mean the habit of getting up at five o'clock in the morning, going out to sea, and not returning until well after midnight, when in the summer it is still light. The person with "Alaska Spirit" stays out on the ocean until he catches the daily allowance. One cannot become a true fisherman unless he learns how to endure this way. Catching fish is not a pleasure cruise. No matter how many fish may be in the ocean, they are not going to just jump into the boat. It takes specialized knowledge and much experience. Once a person receives intense training to become a fisherman, he can go anywhere in the world and become a leader of people. Learning to be a fisherman is good leadership training."

NOCP has been hosted each summer in Kodiak since 2007. Chris Fiala, Frank Button, and Minoru Kageyama, three veterans of Ocean Challenge, launched a three-week summer program for youth ages 16-35 to give the next generation a taste of the Father Moon's love for the ocean, fishing, and all that is has to teach.

Instructions for "adopting" children.

If you are accepting a request to adopt another family's child:

1.

Arrange with the adoptee's family first to adopt their child for the week and decide who will register the adopted child.
2.

If you are registering the adopted child yourself, include them on your registration and specify the chaperoning individuals in your family who will look after this child.
3.

If you register an adopted child yourself, please write down their parent's name and email in the comments section at the bottom.

If you are requesting a child to be adopted:

1.

Find and arrange a family to adopt your child for Family Camp by talking directly with the adopting family.
2.

Register your children. No more than two children can be adopted by the same family.
3.

In the appropriate section of registration for that child, specify the two chaperones in the family have arranged to adopt each child.
4.

You may pay for this child's registration directly online. The registrar may reach out if there are any questions or clarifications with regards to adoption arrangements with the other family.

If you need help with this, contact the registrar, Laura Herbers, and she will help you arrange the adoption and invoices.

Accept Code of Conduct

- I will respect the authority of all central figures, including the Core Staff, other camp staff, speakers, and parents.
- I will respect the camp’s facilities and God’s creation. I will help keep the camp clean by putting any garbage in the appropriate place. I will keep my own belongings tidy. I will leave the camp in a better state than I found it.
- I will respect God, others and myself by participating fully and being on time to all camp activities. Participation with a positive attitude is essential for a good camp experience. Being on time will help me prepare my heart and keep the program running well.
- I will be on camp grounds at all times, unless with specific permission from Core Staff.
- I will respect others, God, and myself by observing “lights out”. The end of the day is as important as the beginning. I understand that everyone gets the most out of camp on the foundation of a good night’s sleep.
- I am coming to this camp to inherit from God through education, peer and elder relationships, and His creation. The use of cell phones, music players, laptops, gaming devices, and comic books are strongly discouraged during the workshop.
- I will refrain from negative activity during camp. This includes such things as name-calling, putdowns, swears, excluding others etc. I will also respect other campers physically by not compromising their safety or hurting them. I will not bring or use any alcohol or drugs to camp.
- I will respect God, others and myself by wearing appropriate clothing at all times. Clothing is a great way to express oneself, so let’s express ourselves in a God-honoring way. Clothing that is too tight or too short is considered inappropriate. Shorts must be at least finger length and no “holy jeans”.
- I understand that if my conduct is found to be in violation of this code by the Core Staff, they will notify my parents and I will be removed from the camp at my, or my parent’s, expense (without reimbursement of the registration fee).
- I hereby authorize the camp staff, into whose care said minor has been entrusted, to consent to any emergency medical treatment or hospital care to be rendered to said minor under the supervision and upon the advice of a physician or surgeon licensed under the provisions of the Medical Practice Act or by a dentist licensed under the provisions of the Dental Practice Act. I further authorize the camp staff to have said minor released into their custody should hospital care no longer be required.
