How has Mother of Peace inspired you?

It's been three years since True Mother's memoir, Mother of Peace, debuted in the U.S. on June 17, 2020. The best-selling memoir, first published in Korean and then translated into multiple languages, recalls True Mother's journey from a war-torn childhood in North Korea, to spearheading the global Unification movement and numerous peace-building initiatives alongside her late husband, the Rev. Sun Myung Moon.

On this 3rd anniversary, we celebrate the transformative power of Mother of Peace as it continues to touch the hearts and minds of countless people all over the world.

Below are some reflections of how the book has inspired readers over the years:

This memoir follows the remarkable, real-life journey of arguably one of the greatest peacemakers of our time ... As you read through this book you may find yourself asking, how on earth could any human being sustain such a high level of commitment to creating peace in the world despite the many setbacks, widespread opposition and agonizing personal tragedies. My conclusion is that this could only be possible where there is a love for God and for this world. - AC, 2020

Such a fascinating look into the life of a woman at the center of a new religion who is totally committed to her purpose of comforting the heart of God ... When I pick [the book] up, the time disappears. There is no one who can tell the story of the Unification [movement] and Father Moon's mission from the kind of perspective that she has, and it feels surreal to be experiencing her life through this book. - YM, 2020

I loved True Mother's devout faith as she walked on this course of loneliness to accomplish God's Will. - JB, 2023

History is filled with women of note. This memoir by Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon shows that she is also a historical figure, not just from Korea but of the world. - DC, 2022

Love the book and read it 25 times!!!! - GR, 2022

The word "sacrifice" is mentioned throughout the book. I found that profound because faith by itself is belief within the mind, but sacrifice is putting that faith into practice daily by one's actions. Mother Moon has provided me a model for self-reflection of my own faith and sacrifice to do God's Will. - BL, 2020

An incredible account of Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon's life in preparation for the mission given to her by God. A description of what living for the sake of others mean. - KC, 2021

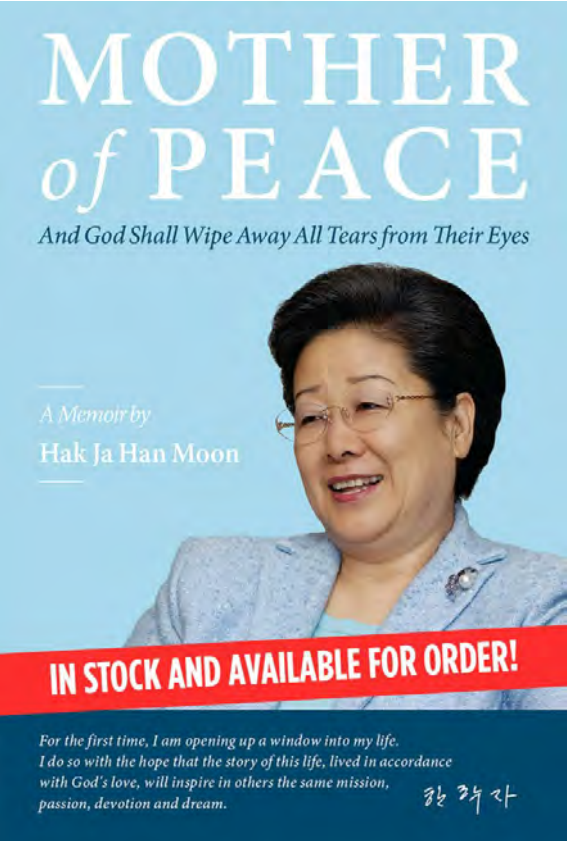

Mrs. Moon is [an] amazing woman leader today. Together with her husband Rev. Moon, their contribution for world peace is far beyond any great leaders in history.

I strongly recommend this book to any righteous person who really concerns today's chaotic situations. - KH, 2022

This book "Mother of Peace" has brought me the understanding and the feeling of how our God is working in our time and how He has raised up people of faith to take His work of salvation to a higher dimension and becoming a living example, a textbook for us to read, to follow and the ladder for everyone to climb up to become the people that He needs at this time. - GB, 2022

Discover the story of Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, a North Korean village girl born into a suffering country, who is now regarded by millions as the Mother of Peace.

A major milestone of her life, described in never-told-before detail, was her marriage in 1960, at age 17, to the charismatic Rev. Dr. Sun Myung Moon. For the next 52 years, she joined him in the daunting task of building a global interfaith movement to fulfill God’s will for peace in the 21st century.

Mother Moon’s journey as a religious woman leader is breathtaking: Born in Japanese-occupied Korea in 1943, she spent her early life in nature so she could commune with God. War forced her to flee south with her mother and grandmother; they crossed the Han River Bridge minutes before it was blown up. Later, she walked and worked side-by-side with Father Moon, one of history’s most energetic and visionary men. They visited every corner of the earth and, despite relentless persecution, met with world leaders, including Mikhail Gorbachev and Kim Il Sung, to bring God’s message for them.

During this time, she bore 14 children and buried four. She stood with Father Moon for hours as they officiated at Marriage Blessing Ceremonies for hundreds of thousands of couples. Together, they launched hundreds of organizations and businesses to serve youth, family and peacemaking.

Since Father Moon’s passing in 2012, Mother Moon has shouldered the leadership of their still-growing movement. She has led “Peace Starts With Me” rallies in six continents and plans to bring Blessing Ceremonies to all people.

“As I complete this book, one person I dearly miss at this moment is my beloved husband, Father Sun Myung Moon. We spent our lives together to convey and accomplish God’s will ... If he were here to witness the publication of this book, his face would shine with a joy greater than that of anyone else. The sparkle in his eyes is dancing in my heart today. I hope that this book will reveal a taste of our life spent together for God’s will.”
- Hak Ja Han Moon
