

FFWPU USA: Artists' Weekend Retreat In The Poconos - Registration Is Open

Demian Dunkley
June 28, 2023

Join us in the stunning Pocono mountains for a weekend of song, dance, and other performing arts! If you like to perform, like to attend performances, or both, this weekend is for you and your family.

In addition to utilizing multiple staging areas to rehearse, perform, or be part of the audience, you can enjoy optional hiking, swimming, crafts, and sports activities, as well as simply take time to reconnect with friends, family, and nature.

There will be learning sessions for all ages, led by folks who enjoy sharing their craft, plus group discussions on how we can better impact our community through the performing arts.

If you happen to have a performing arts related talent that you'd like to share or teach, this could be an ideal opportunity to do so. Let us know when you register.

Volunteering Info

Camp Shehaqua is run entirely by volunteers! This helps us keep costs low, and more importantly gives everyone an opportunity to be a part of creating the experience as a community. We are grateful for each person's contributions, campers over the age of 18 will be assigned a volunteer role by the Camp Director or Education Director. Woo!

There are also some volunteer options for High School children as well for youth that are interested.

Does this person play any musical instruments? If so, please bring them along to camp! It's a lot of fun to make music together. To help us connect with them, please list the instrument(s) below:
