

FFWPU USA: New Cheon Shim Won Prayer Halls open across the USA

Aligning with True Mother's vision, Cheon Shim Won USA President Dr. Ki Hoon Kim reported the Unification movement will "multiply and expand" the Cheon Shim Won providence in America. "We are completing this in all big cities, opening them one by one every week," he said during an FFWPU USA leaders' meeting on July 18. "Within this year ... [there will be] Cheon Shim Won prayer rooms in all 50 states, and 80 cities around the nation."

Dr. Kim's remarks come on the heels of the latest Cheon Shim Won opening in California at the Bay Area Family Church, and a seven-day Las Vegas workshop. He noted the next Cheon Shim Won will debut at the KEA Church in New Jersey, as leaders follow True Mother's providential instruction.

Leaders described the November 2022 grand opening of the Cheon Shim Won USA headquarters in Las Vegas as "a breakthrough experience" that paved the way for victories this year. Dr. Achille Acolatse, director of FFWPU USA Southeast, shared that he experienced new epiphanies regarding "spirit and truth" during the recent workshop at the Las Vegas Cheon Shim Won.

"I realized the importance of this time [and] what Mother is trying to tell us," said Dr. Acolatse, emphasizing that witnessing is essential during this new era. "We need to stay awake and connect with this heart of Mother and go out there and testify," he said while encouraging community members to also testify to Jesus. "Unless [we] understand the heart of the Messiah ... how can we take responsibility?"

For Bay Area Pastor Rev. Kevin Thompson, the new Cheon Shim Won at his church - which opened July 15 - signifies great meaning.

"July 15 was a historic day, because that was the last day that True Father spent in America in 2012," he said. Rev. Thompson noted more than 150 people celebrated the recent opening and stated the new Cheon Shim Won will make the Bay Area "the center of great revival in Northern California and the West region."

With the previous opening of the Cheon Shim Won at the Los Angeles Family Church, Dr. Kim said the national movement's "spirit is fired up" as leaders work together for a common purpose. "With Rev. Dunkley coming back to America, there is a new spirit ... and great blessing [to come]," he said.

The next seven-day Cheon Shim Won workshop, held monthly in Las Vegas, will be from August 6 through 12 and includes lectures, chanyang sessions, and opportunities to offer prayer devotions.

HJ CheonBo and Cheon Shim Won Grand Opening 'A Breakthrough'

"Many pastors came nationwide, and they really had a great time," said Dr. Ki Hoon Kim, chairman of Cheon Shim Won USA. "[They] really understood the CheonBo Great Works and True Parents' providence to all become CheonBo families."

In a Nov. 15 leaders' meeting, Dr. Kim said more than 500 people registered and participated in the grand opening ceremony of the Cheon Shim Won in Las Vegas over the weekend. FFWPU USA leaders, clergy, youth, and other guests were among the crowd celebrating the new training center and taking part in a concurrent HJ CheonBo event Nov. 12 and 13.

"Many pastors shared their testimonies on stage," said Dr. Kim, who reported some 32 people signed up for a seven-day workshop after the event. "They liked hearing about the Divine Principle and True Parents." There were also more than 150 liberation ceremony registrations during the CheonBo event, as well as 70 blessing registrations of participants' family members. Leaders said spiritual preparation created a palpable atmosphere of support during the weekend activities.

"So many great things happened with our CheonBo and Cheon Shim Won prayer condition," said Dr. Kim. "Around 50 people came for the Cheon Shim Won special prayer. It was packed with people praying outside the hoon dok hae room as well ... The event [overall] went very smoothly and successfully."

FFWPU USA President Rev. Naokimi Ushiroda said the weekend events were "a beautiful experience" and that he "felt the spirit was very light and joyful."

"We had a large contingency of clergy who attended," he said, "and this took a lot of preparation to guide them, educate them, and really support them in having a great experience. We also had some KCLC members there from Korea ... It was really inspiring to see that level of engagement and sincerity from the clergy."

Dr. Kim reported several ACLC members invited KCLC pastors to join them in Las Vegas after an initial meeting during the ILC Summit held in Seoul in August. "We had 10 KCLC pastors come representing all regions in Korea," he said. "They had a wonderful time even though they had no [previous Divine Principle] education at the time. [Everyone] was inspiring one another."

Rev. John Jackson, FFWPU USA South director, said it was due to "an incredible united front" that event organizers could "do amazing work." He said all of the movement's national leadership came together to bring about the successful outcome. In particular, he pointed to the 30 clergy guests who came, seven of whom participated in ancestor liberation, he said.

“This was a breakthrough experience,” said Rev. Naokimi. “Two years ago, centered on True Mother’s guidance and Dr. Yong’s vision, we declared clergy to complete CheonBo, and it’s actually happening now ... This will only grow from here.”

Through YCLC, a number of young people participated as well while engaged in an overlapping leaders’ retreat called “One For All.” Min. Joshua Holmes, YCLC national co-director, said the group focused on three main goals of the retreat: to grow, bond, and unite. “At the core of it all, we wanted people to experience God at the Cheon Shim Won,” he said. “That was our primary motivation ... We wanted to understand True Mother’s heart for launching the Cheon Shim Won, and [her focus] on clergy and the youth and raising them up.”

National leaders said the next CheonBo event is planned for spring 2023.
