The Family Federation held an information stand in lovely summer weather in the main street of Oslo on Saturday.

We handed out a lot of leaflets, especially about the Second Coming of the Messiah.

Many wanted to know more, so we had a busy day.

The first interested person approached us before we'd finished preparing the stand.

We noticed that many Korean tourists passing by exclaimed "Oh, Moon Sun-myung!" when seeing his autobiography displayed on our book table.

One Islamic scholar who held a talk at one of our peace conferences, was happy to see us once again.
