VIDEO reveals Kook Jin's STRANGE THEOLOGY, Q and A with Kook Jin Nim, 8 Sept. 2017

Kook Jin spent 1 hour explaining that he does not need to speak according to Divine Principle and needs no confirmation in Father's words for his teachings, because Father changed his theology in the last days. How convenient! Father never told us the truth, he explained, But went all the way around teaching us untruth, because "we were not ready". In his words, "in the end Father taught very different from what he was teaching before." Really!

So guess what; True Father is Jesus, he is God the Creator, and Holy Spirit is not feminine. Divine Principle was wrong! True Father himself is true parents -- no need of real bride, because he is God the Creator, Kook Jin explained. We are all confused and ignorant, since Father changed his theology and there is no need to accept what CSG or the Divine Principle explain. He was sharp, no need to search confirmation of what he and Hyung Jin teach in Father's words. Even Sanctuary Church member commented, "I don't find Father's words about that." Kook Jin replied, "Yes, but we have the 2nd King here." "It's about what God says".. and of course, the whole idea is, that Hyung Jin is God. So, "Father's words are precious", he said, but they don't matter.

Hyung Jin is God's body on earth revealing the truth, while Fathers theology was wrong, Kook Jin clearly explained (With some twisted manipulative approach, of course! and lots of laughing, to make it acceptable)

We should observe these happenings internally, from providential viewpoint. Yet, what is clear from this Video; They rationalize to go around Father's words and replace them with Hyung Jin's new theology without objections. They went a big circle to achieve that. First they made people negative of Mother, blaming that she changing CSG, even though it was Father's direction (See Father's words). Then used fabrications to proclaim Hyung Jin a subject over his parents (Against Father's words). With the time, more and more openly they talked about Father's traditions as Satanic; for example Tithing, FFed structure and so on. Gradually they replaced Fathers Ceremonies, Holidays, even the Blessing and all core traditions and goals. Against all Father's warnings, Hyung Jin proclaimed himself a New Center. It's time True Children humble themselves in front of their Parents:

"Can a strong elder brother come home and be the boss there? No.. Even when an elder brother has several hundred doctorates, can he come home and be the boss? No, not even then. Why not? Because his parents are there." Father, CSG

NOTES FROM THE VIDEO

Kook Jin (1:15 min); "People think I don't know Divine Principle, because in the end Father taught very different from what he was teaching before." "God of Night preexisted creation" and "Father is from the God of Night." "God of day is the God that appeared after creation", so Kook Jin concluded, "God of day is a created being.. and there can be many gods of day... all pagan, false gods", but they all "have to understand that they are not god and there is only one God (True Father)".

This way, Kook Jin says, Father changed the theology, so all those explanations we know from Divine Principle and CSG are no longer valid. He claims, Father openly denied all his previous teachings about male/female unity etc. and proclaimed that he alone is "true parents". In his words, "This is a fundamental shift in theology Father made." Than he concluded, "this is reaffirming that God the Father, God the Son, and the Holy Spirit -- is one God." "Conclusion.. is that Rev. SMM is Jesus," Kook Jin ended. And if that's not theological change. Oh my..!!!

When asked, about this change, Kook Jin started twisting, 'yes you should not change any of Father's words, but 'his words have many, many levels of understanding.' Thus rationalizing, that he is allowed to change as he wishes. Not changing is obviously valid only when blaming Mother, for correcting the miss-printed words. Which was in fact Father's request.

In short, what I see; Father didn't change anything, but Kook Jin reinterpretation did. And it's all with premeditated purpose to exclude Mother out of the picture. This is visible in In Kook Jin's words: "The Holy Spirit is not a woman", Divine Principle is wrong on pointing is as the feminine part of God. The feminine aspect is not important, he said, because "God is 90 % masculine subject."

But if we follow that logic, we should say, that True Mother is God's object, and we know God cannot feel love without his object. The conclusion is, True Mother is God's bride. But Kook Jin stated, "True Father's wife should be every women on this earth." That's much he is confusing God and True Father. Sounds like the old theological problem in Christianity, "How much Jesus is God himself." And you see how big and strange this problems gets, once Sanctuary Church gets freely out of Divine Principle and Father's own explanations. To me, Kook Jin sounds like STUPIDITY THEOLOGY. But let's be correct, this way he is cleaning stupidity out of the UM.

Kook Jin says, True Father never told us this truth, "because we were not ready." But how come, now Sanctuary Church is ready? Is it their love for gossiping and ignorance of Divine Principle that qualifies them? I don't know! Even Sanctuary Church member commented, "I don't find Father's words about that." Kook Jin answered, "Yes, but we have the 2nd King here." "It's about what God says".. and of course, Hyung Jin is God. And some how, only Father's lineage can understand the truth, Kook Jin raised his voice.

Hyungjin and Kook Jin's Real Aim

Father made it clear, his children should not create new ideology, "We should not accept anyone's unrighteous ideology. I cannot endorse (Hyung Jin's ideology) or anyone else's. There is only one ideology, that of the True Parents." Let's be clear, any denial of True Parents is from Satan, Father explained. Hear Father's audio, scolding leaders not to be misled by True Children.

"They ignore me and claim that their decisions are better than mine.. they lie Father approved this or that." True Father audio

Finally, it's time they reveal their original purpose, to deny Father completely and avoid objections. Hyung Jin and Kook Jin struggled a lot with this obstacle while Father was alive. Each time they wanted to turn our church towards Christianity, they faced the objection of the leaders, that this is against Father's directions.

Now Father is gone. The only thing they needed is to somehow kill all Father's major teachings, like the concepts of; True Parents, going beyond religion, unity of religions, loving and sacrificing for others... All those were huge obstacle for their objectives. They needed freedom of these central concepts, so that they can do and change anything as they wish, with no one telling them, "This is against Father." And it is:

Now there is no ideology you need other than the ideology of True Parents. There is nothing else. We should not accept anyone's unrighteous ideology. I cannot endorse (Hyung Jin's) ideology or anyone else's. There is only one ideology, that of the True Parents." CSG1

Somebody commented, "Sanctuary Church should finally proclaim their theology openly." But listen to them, each member of Sanctuary Church has his own theology. They all talk freely any sort of nonsense. And that's where they want freedom from Father's theology. They are only willing to use Father wherever and however it serves their momentous needs, with no regard to the complete picture and what theology that creates.

Information Manipulation leaning to Terrorism

We should never manipulatively mislead people towards negativity and fear, using statistics, as Kook Jin does; "Over 5000 people are killed by criminals", Kook Jin explains, "but over 240 millions innocent citizens are killed by governments." He says government is more dangerous. But let's see the facts; 200 million are killed by the Communist Regimes and around 40 millions are killed in the 2nd WW.

We Unificationists work with the governments to help them solve problems and improve them. Ironically, exactly Communists were teaching against the government and provoking violent reaction.

"The problem of Asian culture", he continues is, "you love your slavery too much." So Western humanistic-self-centered culture is better than the Eastern more vertical culture. Really? And isn't that contradiction with him and his brother promoting a King and Monarchy system.

Did Father really ever suggested a Monarchic system? In fact, all conferences Father made with professionals, concluded, that a better government will be, when professionals in the different fields start solving the problems, instead of politicians deciding them, with certain financial agenda.

There should be a body under God and True Parents, to extend God's will for the benefit of all the humanity. So Father founded numerous organizations in all fields, to play the role of that governing body. This body should be centered not on a man, but on the absolute values. Father made so many conferences about that.

Kook Jin says, "God was not with the majority... killed majority when it complained". But Father clearly explained, this was the Angelic way of restoration, Old Testament way -- not God's way. Still the level of love and heart was not developed. People followed the Angelic muster-servant method, one of Judging, while God's way is that of self-successive, service and true love. Look at the terrorism, to see how wrong Kook Jin's arguments can lead. Then listen to him talk for hours, just, "war.. war.. judgment... judgment."

Where will this theology lead them? Is that helping them to see the way of Love, Unification and Peace? No, they consider us, the Unificationists, as cowards, afraid to act. Really?

Just compare their strange teachings of fear and resentment with True Mother's words of love and hope

True Parents are establishing the garden of Eden, which was completed for the first time, and is the model of heaven and earth. The five-colored race is a model of the family community, which lives for each other's, joy and happiness, freedom and peace.. society centered on God, based on the Culture of Heart.

"Every second of everyday, True Mother is investing her mind, body and soul to build True Parents' sacred capital city, a lasting beacon of hope for the 7.4 billion children of the world, guiding them all on their journey back home to God." Sun Jin Nim
