

Cote d'Ivoire holds 1-Day Strategic Plan Workshop with 120 Blessed Families

Philbert Seka
November 1, 2016

After the Kick off ceremony for the 100-day devotion on October 30, 2016, the Education and Witnessing Department held a 1-day workshop on November 1st, 2016 with 120 Blessed Families and members to give the details program of the Strategic Plan. The tools to be use on the ground in the different tribes were explained as well.

The Vice President of FFWPU, Brou Konan Jean Marie, gave a lecture on the necessity of teaching the Divine Principle to people we witness to. Following that Mr. Yessotie Didier in charge of Heavenly Tribal Messiahship Activities explained in details about what each Tribal Messiah should be doing in daily life. Mr. GAHE Henri in charge of the public mission mobile team mentioned the importance of Public Mission for every single Unificationist.

Rev. Philbert Seka, President of FFWPU Cote d'Ivoire gave a lecture based on 'We can do it' which is used in America. He explained why we need a tribe and how we can become Victorious Heavenly Tribal Messiah.

To close the workshop, the Rev Dr. Cho Dong Ho, Regional President, encouraged all the participants to move on to bring more results as requested by True Parents.

Notice that Cote d'Ivoire is a Key Special Strategic National for the fulfillment of Vision 2020. In its strategic plan for the 100 days, more than 500 blessed families will be trained and encourage to do the Tribal Messiah Activities. At the end of the 100 days devotion period, 12 new churches will be established with 864 new blessed members and 12 New Tribal Messiahs in the nation.

