Re. : Transfer of Today's World to the History Compilation Committee and Transfer of Personnel

May the blessings and love of our Heavenly Parent and the True Parents be with each region, nation and providential organization.

Recently, True Mother asked us to set up a translation center within the History Compilation Committee and for the committee to oversee the publication of the Today's World magazine for the purpose of creating an environment supportive of your efforts to achieve victory through Vision 2020. Accordingly, the committee is working closely with the FFWPU International Headquarters to reorganize related operations and is prepared to open a new chapter in our support for world missions in the following ways:

I. The Major Tasks of the History Compilation Committee

1. Today's World, e-book service

Today's World magazine will be provided as an e-book to better adapt to the trends and media environment in the IT Age. The name of the e-book will be True Peace (TP magazine for short). In its new form, any part that is useful to the field can be copied and printed for distribution. The e-book will also be provided via e-mail to PeaceTv's twenty thousand current subscribers. Mobile services will be provided for smart phones. Smart phone users can take advantage of this by downloading and installing the app, KakaoTalk, on your smart phone, saving the official PeaceTv cell phone number (+82-10-4578-4670) in your contacts, adding this number as a KakaoTalk friend, and sending a text message through KakaoTalk with your full name and cell phone number. Once this process is complete you will be able to receive updates and other content (for example, videos of True Parents' speeches and Today's World and Tongil Segye e-books) from PeaceTv.

With one click, you can view videos of True Parents' speeches, allowing you to vividly experience True Parents' heart at the time the speech was given.

2. Translation center

We are planning to revamp the existing translation team to provide language services for English and Spanish, and later gradually to expand this to French, Russian and other languages.

Currently, we are operating a translation center with a staff of six. There are four members of our English team, Julian Gray, David Beard, Kunduk Koh and Kayoung Kim and two members of our Spanish team, Alejandro de Souza and Luis Chavez. With the cooperation of each region, we hope to augment our movement's overall translation capacity by creating a network of translators. We also plan to create a database of professional human resources to pool our translation capacity.

We were also assigned the responsibility of translating the Cheon Il Guk Holy Scriptures. We are currently speeding up the translations with a goal of publishing the English versions of Cheon Seong Gyeong, Pyeong Hwa Gyeong, and Chambumo Gyeong this August. We plan to support the publication of English materials in Korea and offer language support at our main events in Korea.

We hope that the regional headquarters can identify areas in which they might specialize and a language focus, and work together with us in building a system to provide support to the other mission nations. For example, Korea can produce material from and about True Parents while Japan might create animation for second-generation education. The U.S. headquarters could produce and distribute educational material for the English speaking nations, the regional headquarters of South America, located in Brazil, can do the same for the twenty Spanish-speaking nations, while the French headquarters might provide material for the twenty-two French-speaking nations.

The History Compilation Committee will publish a glossary (comprising more than three thousand entries, such as key terms from True Parents' speeches, the official titles of events and proclamations and names of providential organizations and companies) in seven languages to ensure the consistency of translations and enhance the efficiency and accuracy of translated work.

3. Opening an English PeaceTv site and providing support for the production of material in Spanish and French

We regretfully acknowledge that much of True Parents' speeches and videos of major events presided over by them were not adequately made available to the more than sixty English-speaking nations throughout the world.

The English PeaceTv site is scheduled to open on May 29 (5.1 by the heavenly calendar). We will make it available to you free of charge. For the time being, Spanish material will also be posted on this web site. In the future, when it becomes possible, we plan to create additional web sites to provide content in Spanish, French, Russian, Arabic and other languages.

PeaceTv will produce and provide material that can assist your efforts to expand and convey True Parents' realm of heart to the world's Cain-type realm. Videos of True Parents' speeches, of related news and of best practices in the field will be produced along with educational videos (for example, Divine Principle lectures, lectures on True Parents' life courses and on providential history) to raise members' awareness and to support your witnessing endeavors.

We are aware that there are some areas that do not have adequate internet connectivity and that experience delays in accessing web sites or playing videos posted on the internet. Thus, the English site will be revamped to enable quicker access from any location, and for people in the field to easily upload material or to post articles from your region.
