An Explanation of the New Scriptural Works

True Parents directed that three new volumes of True Parents' words be created for the present era of Cheon Il Guk, God's kingdom that is still to be made substantial. These volumes are distinguished from other scriptural works by the addition of the extra title "The Holy Scripture of Cheon Il Guk" on each volume. This refers to the fact that they were published after Foundation Day, the day True Parents designated as the first day of Cheon Il Guk. Two of the three were published in English in time for the second anniversary of True Father's ascension.

The first is Cheon Seong Gyeong, which could be translated as "Heavenly Scripture." This work is composed of many short extracts from the range of True Father's teachings over many decades, providing a complete picture of True Father's teachings. True Mother had expressed that she wanted to provide a volume that drew together the "jewels" of Father's teachings.

The second volume is Pyeong Hwa Gyeong, which could be translated as "Scriptures of Peace." It is a selection of 178 of Father and Mother's complete speeches, also given over a period of some five decades. A third volume, Cham Bumo Gyeong, "True Parents' Scripture," which will feature True Parents' life course, is still undergoing final preparations in the original Korean.

It is important to note that the new Cheon Seong Gyeong is more than an edit of the original Cheon Seong Gyeong, which was published in Korean in 2003. Even though some of the underlying themes are the same as or similar to those of the original work, many new extracts were selected that have never been translated before. The new edition includes Father's words from the earliest years of his ministry to the final years of his early life, and was created to provide a complete overview of his teachings, also reviewing the stages of God's providence up until the present.

The work is enhanced by the inclusion of a selection of True Father's prayers from the earliest recordings of Father's words (1956) to Father's final redemptive prayer just weeks before he ascended. These are not the words True Father spoke to us as sons and daughters, but those which he spoke to God, as a son to his Heavenly Parent. From that point of view alone, these are remarkable to have in writing, but they also reveal many new aspects of the mission Father has striven to fulfill and they explore aspects of his teachings unexpressed elsewhere.

Notably, a section is also devoted to extracts from talks given by True Mother during the months following Father's ascension. This is a record of her earliest guidance and expression of resolve as the sole True Parent on earth.

Pyeong Hwa Gyeong similarly includes speeches from the earlier years of Father's ministry, as well as those from the final fifteen years, during which many providential declarations were made and milestones reached. Many are public speeches, some re-translated or reedited for the new publication, with a good number in English for the first time. Pyeong Hwa Gyeong includes an alternative translation of True Families: Gateway to Heaven, and a new edit of Owner of Peace,

Owner of Lineage, plus a number of the peace messages, all of which are scriptural texts that True Parents designated among the Eight Great Textbooks.

Sincere effort has been made to translate these works into English. They are probably the most comprehensive expression of True Parents' teachings in their own words to date, and it is hoped that their readers will gain much inspiration and blessing from their pages.
