

Global Culture Festival in Latvia

Makoto Ando - October 28, 2017

On October 28th in the Latvian Peace Embassy, CARP organized the “Global Culture Festival” for 5 members and new guests. After receiving DP lecture, they could experience Japanese culture through different programs. It was a good time for them to make relationship with each other and connect more deeply with our activities.

