

German Friendship Club – Easter Traditions

As I had booked the hall during Easter time, I felt that I should have an event explaining about Easter traditions in Germany. The preparations for doing so became more complicated than I initially thought they would be; it was difficult to find films about Easter traditions in Germany and it was impossible to get paints to paint Easter eggs, which I had planned to do. Luckily a good friend of mine came across a few short films and had the great idea to put them together as one. He did a great job!

I posted leaflets all over Croydon about the ‘German Easter Traditions’ event that I would be holding, which caught the eye of many people. There were about 30 people who attended, many of which were new guests. As I believe in Gods guidance I felt it was important to pray at the start of the event, after which I gave a speech about the German Friendship Club that touched the hearts of all of the participants.

We then watched a film about German Easter traditions which was both knowledgeable and well received by all, Ljerka spoke about how to paint Easter eggs and had brought some (already painted) along to show everyone. People enjoyed the circle of Friendship and the wonderful food which we prepared freshly on the premises, Katharina and Therese had also baked a wonderful Easter loaf; which is traditionally eaten during Easter time.

After the event people came up to me and thanked me for a lovely afternoon and wanted to know when the next one will be. In fact one lady emailed me and said she feels that it is my calling to do this German Friendship Club, that everyone has a calling and mine is to do these events. Lastly I want to thank everyone who attended, prayed and supported our event in various ways. I hope we can continue to come together, learn and build deeper friendships and understanding of one another.
