

Birthday as an occasion for heroism

Russia, St.Petersburg, Maria Nazarova, May 18, 2018

Ambassador for Peace, honorary donor of Russia, author of many socially significant projects, Yevgeny Kutuzov, launched his charity super marathon "5000 km of good" (the race for Elbrus) as part of Peace Road project in St. Petersburg, on his birthday, May 18. "By this action, I want very much to draw public attention to raising funds for charitable purposes," says Eugene.

His running project is an informational occasion to collect 2 million rubles for rehabilitation of three children with cerebral palsy. The action is organized by the charitable foundation "Stars for Children".

Universal Peace Federation supports initiatives of such kind and expresses its gratitude to Eugene for the invitation to the press conference related to the marathon. Families of the sick children, trustees of the Foundation, actor Sergei Migitsko, two television channels, friends of Evgeny, as well as representatives of social movements gathered together on this day to support him and wish him a good journey.

On behalf of the Universal Peace Federation, Natalia Chigrina handed him the certificate of the Ambassador for Peace. Goodness brings us together as a one big family. Someone first begins to give warmth to people, and others catch the idea, get infected with it, then they have new brilliant ideas. The more numerous such people become, the smaller the problems seem.
