

FFWPU Philippines CheonBo Event in La Union - Purify & Heal Mind, Body, Soul

Leo Angelo Halog
April 7, 2024

On April 07, 2024, the HJ CheonBo Special Philippines Event took place in La Union, Philippines, with the theme "Purify and Heal: Mind, Body, and Seoul," the event aimed to facilitate spiritual, physical, and emotional rejuvenation for all attendees. A total of 100 participants joined onsite and 87 online registered that kicked off the event, then followed by a soul-stirring session of Holy Songs and Worship Songs, led by Reverend Edgar Tanate and Ms. Blessie Ramos.

The ceremony started with a moment of quiet introspection aimed at centering the mind and spirit, followed by the recitation of the CIG Anthem and KyeongBae to True Parents further deepened the spiritual connection among participants. Attendees listened to the messages given by respected FFWPU Leaders emphasizing the significance of the gathering.

The Ancestor Liberation: Chanyang Yeoksa, provided attendees with the opportunity to honor and liberate their ancestors. This deeply spiritual practice aimed to heal ancestral wounds and strengthen familial bonds, fostering a sense of interconnectedness and harmony.

A video presentation titled "The Grace of CheonShimWon 1,000th" offered insights into the profound spiritual legacy of CheonShimWon, inspiring attendees on their spiritual journey.

Dr. Kim In Cheon, President of HJ CheonBo Asia Pacific Branch, delivered a compelling message, offering guidance on spiritual purification and healing. Rev. Edgar Tanate led a Cheon Shim Won Prayer session, accompanied by a special performance by the Chanyang Team of two Cheon Shim Won Songs, and a resonating unison prayer. The session concluded with a Benediction Prayer by Reverend Rene Lansangan, imparting blessings and goodwill upon all.

During the brief intermission, participants enjoyed a performance by 2nd Generations from Region 1, energizing the atmosphere.

The event concluded with the ceremonial bequeathal of Death Valley Holy Salt, symbolizing purification and spiritual renewal. Participants left the event with uplifted spirits, inspired minds, and a renewed commitment to their holistic well-being. The HJ CheonBo Special Philippines Event served as a beacon of light and hope, nurturing the mind, body, and soul of all who attended.