Part 1

Introduction: I've been thinking about what it means to be an Unificationist. I made this quiz as part of that process. Here are a few. Some of the answers are obvious (I think); others, not so much. We have True Parents' example as well as the book. What do you think?

You can choose more than one answer

If you don't like any of the choices, add your own

1) Which is more principled:

- a) Declare yourself Abel
- b) Explain how Cain is wrong
- c) Demand Cain obey you
- d) Only hang around with other Abels
- e) Love Cain until they proclaim you their leader

2) Which is more principled:

- a) Hold yourself to a higher standard, no matter what others are doing
- b) Do whatever people around you are doing
- c) If others are acting badly, do the same. Why is it ok for them and not you?
- d) You are Abel, so whatever you do is ok by God

3) If you think someone is on the wrong side, which is more principled:

- a) Tell them how wrong they are
- b) Try to see them through God's point of view
- c) Have nothing to do with them, they might contaminate you
- d) Serve them, listen to them, make friends with them, then challenge them
