Melvin “Myung Bin” Joseph Mouton is the fourth oldest out of seven other siblings (James Mouton, Shirley Hollier, Gwend Mouton, Robert Mouton, Anthony Mouton (deceased), Cherro Ann Lafontaine, and Linda Spurlock). He was born on July 17, 1951 in Lafayette, Louisiana to Kenry Mouton and Theresa Journet.

Myung Bin served in the US Air Force for three years and graduated with an Associates degree in Architecture in Tampa, Florida on December 22, 1976. After graduating, he met James Fleming who brought him to the Unification Movement. After hearing the Divine Principle, Myung Bin committed himself to a life of faith by devoting himself entirely to serving God and helping to restore God’s Kingdom on Earth. He traveled to Africa, Korea, Japan and to the Philippines for missionary work to inspire others about living for the sake of God.

Myung Bin received the Marriage Blessing with Virginia Oracion Mouton on January 12, 1989. Myung Bin and Virginia Mouton have been married for a total of 29 years and have two daughters, Jong Sun (25) and Miyung Mouton (20). Myung Bin cared deeply for his family and always shared his pride for his daughters’ achievements; his eldest daughter is a musician and a graduate of IU Bloomington with a Bachelors in Biochemistry and his youngest currently attending Herron School of Art at IUPUI for Visual Communications & Design. He was also a talented artist and he had a passion for music, sharing his heart through his singing. He often sang for his family and True Parents.

God, True Parents, and his family were of the utmost importance to Myung Bin and his love for them was undying. His faith was unshakable and he never hesitated to share his faith with those around him.
