

In Memory of Sachiko Cowan

Yun-A Johnson
May 13, 2020

Name: Sachiko Cowan

Spouse: Matthew Cowan

Children: Iona

Birth Date: September 1, 1959

Blessing Date: October 14, 1982

Ascension Date: April 22, 2020

Born September 1, 1959 in Tokyo, Japan and raised in Chiba, Japan, Sachiko met the Unification Movement when she was 18 years old. She dedicated her life to God and True Parents and maintained her commitment of service to providential missions for over 40 years. On April 22, 2020, she succumbed to the effects of cancer after a relatively short hospitalization.

Sachiko was matched and Blessed with Matthew Quentin Cowan, originally from England, in the 6000 Couples Blessing in Seoul, Korea. Their love and life together produced a lovely, brilliant daughter in 1990 named Iona who now resides in Columbus, Ohio. Matthew was instrumental in the art businesses in America before ascending due to health issues in 1992.

Life was a "mission" for Sachiko. She could be classified as a minimalist, always ready for the next move to where Heavenly Parent and True Parents needed her most. She served in various states in America, Europe, Israel, Africa, particularly in Mali, and for a short time in Azerbaijan. In 1995, Sachiko and Iona relocated to Columbus, Ohio making the community their home.

It was Sachiko's final wishes to her daughter, Iona, to be cremated and her ashes buried together in her husband's final resting place in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery in Tarrytown, New York. May she have a joyful ascension and reunion with her beloved husband. May their love shine through their cherished daughter, Iona. May God and True Parents bless this Blessed Central Family eternally.

Seonghwa Ceremony

Date: Sunday, May 17 at 1:00 PM (EST)

Location: The Seonghwa Ceremony will be streamed live via Zoom at this link. Please use the password: 742008