A top-down view of a white ceramic plate with a decorative gold and black floral border. The plate features a main course of two steaks: a thick, seared beef fillet and a smaller abalone steak, both resting in a rich, dark brown fond de veau sauce. Accompanying the steaks is a sautéed vegetable bouquet consisting of a whole carrot, a cherry tomato, and a piece of broccoli. A portion of mashed potatoes is also visible. The plate is set on a white tablecloth, with a silver fork and knife partially visible around the edges.
