

Rise Up and Tell the World about True Parents

Hak Ja Han
May 11, 2014

Unificationists from around the world were welcomed to the Global Sunday Service held via internet on May 10, 2014 at the Cheong Shim Peace World Center in Korea. The following is an edited transcript from the English verbal translation of True Mother's worldwide message given at the Cheongshim Peace World Center, South Korea, on Sunday, May 11, 2014. Edits were made only to the grammar, not the message itself.

Today it is Cheon Il Guk. By the Heavenly Calendar this is the second spring. Spring is the season of hope. It is a time when we can raise our dreams up to a high place. Such is the season of spring.

In this beautiful season, the news that we hear from around the world is filled with sadness and conflict and is truly tragic, as if this world were a ship without a captain or a compass. We are always in danger of crashing or sinking after meeting a violent storm; so insecure is this world.

All the Unificationist families around the world and all the warriors of Unificationism, when we look at these conflicts and violent problems, we must rise!

We cannot just sit idly and wait and do nothing. The blessings that we have received we cannot keep as our own. To the contrary, when we think about the 7 billion people who are suffering as orphans, we, the people who know that True Parents have come down to this earth to work with us, have to let rest of the 7 billion people of the world know that fact.

In light of that, I have relocated the world Family Federation for World Peace and Unification (FFWPU) headquarters to the Cheong Jeong Gung in Korea. This was completed yesterday. Through this, I have opened the age through which the True Parents of Heaven, Earth and Humankind can now rule and govern directly. Is that not something for which we can be grateful?

These blessings cannot remain only for ourselves. Let us make an effort to resemble True Parents. We are as true children to our True Parents and we are tribal messiahs. When we fulfill our mission as true children and tribal messiahs, we will be in the position of ancestors. In order to fulfill this responsibility, we have to rise. We cannot wait any longer.

Even at this very moment, there are still people who do not know that True Parents are here and alive, and these people are dying all around the world, countless people. Even though they live in the same age as True Parents, they do not know this providential history. This is the first time that this has come about, after 6,000 years of suffering, and still they are not in the position to receive this grace and blessing and they just pass away tragically. These are our brothers and sisters, and we need to think about them, and when we do, we need to roll back our sleeves, and rise up to the challenge.

We need to proclaim True Parents to the world without reservation and let everyone know that without True Parents this world cannot survive. This is the only way in which we can give back for receiving the blessings that we have received from Heaven.

Therefore, I have divided the continents into language zones, and through this, in the span of one second, I want to give all humanity a chance and opportunity to participate in the heavenly providence. I have established special agents who will help fulfill the task of spreading the blessings in these continents. These people who are at the forefront will testify to humanity about the True Parents. The inauguration ceremony for these people will commence after this event.

So, all of you who are here today, please join your hearts as one. I would be grateful if you would set your hearts so that you are also participating in this great event together.

This special task will truly open the season of spring for the whole world. Until we reap the fruit, let us keep rising together. I truly, sincerely ask for you to rise up as I conclude my speech. Thank you very much.