

Speeches of Hyo Jin Moon - edited by Frank Kaufmann and Peter Ross

August 28, 2014

From January 1, 2006 until March 9, 2008, Hyo Jin Moon gave 80 speeches from the same Belvedere stage as his father had for decades prior. Hyo Jin's original purpose at the outset of these speeches was to educate his eldest son Shin Gil who lost his life just days before returning to Hyo Jin after years of separation. These 80 speeches are a riveting exploration into deep truths of how to live with righteousness, compassion, honor and vision.

Find the book on Amazon.

Hyo Jin Moon, the eldest son of Reverend and Mrs. Sun Myung Moon was born in Seoul, Korea. December 29, 1962. He moved to America with his parents at the age of 7. He served in several public positions including leading an activist, college youth movement during the height of the Cold War. Hyo Jin Moon was an accomplished guitarist, singer, and composer. He founded the music and multimedia corporation, Manhattan Center Studios in New York in 1986, and soon thereafter in Tokyo and Seoul.

