

Hiroko Kaufmann,
Tokyo, 1970

I met the Unification Church in September, 1970 in Tokyo, under Mr. Zawaaura. I was 16-years-old at the time and in my first year of high school.

From this time to the present, God has supported me to be fully devoted to the Unification Church without interruption. I was scheduled to go to America on November 3, 1973 but at the age of 19, I was deemed too young.

One month after my birthday (on February 8, 1974) I was permitted to come to America. I was the youngest of all Japanese members to come to America.

I worked on all campaigns including Madison Square Garden (1974), Yankee Stadium, and Washington Monument (1976) and spent many years on the Japanese Mobile Fundraising Team.
