

True Mother and the Spirit-Led Churches #51

Dr. Chung Sik Yong, December 15, 2021

Today I'd like to talk about again "True Mother and the spirit-led churches" from True Mother's Anthology, Book 1.

Those of you who have listened to True Father's sermons are aware that as we attend True Parents on the earth, there are special events in the heavenly providence that happen without any of us realizing it. At that time in Korea, there were many spirit-led churches, which were different from the Christians who believed that if you just had blind faith in Jesus and the Bible you would go to heaven. These groups had only one goal, which was to prepare the way and to follow guidance which they received directly from God about the search for the Lord's Bride. I was born into a family that was spiritually prepared, whose preparation included participation in those spirit-led churches. I have memories of the indescribable suffering endured by the churches to which my mother, Daemonim, belonged. The members of those churches lived entirely according to the divine revelations they received.

By studying the course of True Parents, we were able to understand well how specifically God selected and prepared a country, a nation, and a religion to send True Parents to this earth.

Think about it. God prepared for 6,000 years to send True Parents to this earth, but did he simply neglect the preparations? You should know that there were indescribable labor and sacrifice of God and the tremendous sacrifice and indemnity of our ancestors.

And we need to know how much blood, sweat and tears our ancestors prepared for us until we met the True Parents who came to us after 6,000 years.

Today as I reflect upon the circumstances of that time, I am drenched in sorrow. These revelations directed them to walk an indemnity course in order to prepare an easier path for the Lord. It was an unbelievable course filled with difficulties and hardships. Some of those members died in prison. Having been called by God to prepare for the Messiah, they overcame their difficulties by carrying with them only the hope that someday they would be able to meet him.

So, with devotion and attendance, they made extensive preparations to welcome the Returning Lord. Among the things they did was to prepare everything for him, from spoons for him to eat with to clothes for him to wear. The revelations they received were so detailed that they knew even the size of his clothes.

Yet while they endured indescribable suffering to carry out these directions, unfortunately they died, one by one, unable to meet the Lord. However, their mission was passed down through three generations, and I was born at the culmination of their revelations. When I was born, God gave revelations about his plan that the Lord at his Second Advent would be born on earth. These revelations were given to a woman named Rev. Heo Ho-bin. When I was six, Rev. Heo's mother met me and prophesied, "You will surely be Heaven's Bride." She had received that revelation about me though I was still just a young girl. (1977.05.03, Belvedere Training Center)

The groups to welcome the Second Coming Lord prepared everything from spoons to clothing in detail.

When I study about certain prepared spiritual groups (prepared for) the Second Coming and for True Father and True Mother, there are really amazing stories and preparation. It is incredible how Heavenly Father prepared for the Second Coming in such detail. Such detail!

Some prepared spiritual groups were receiving revelations through spiritual communication with so much detail that they could even know the size of the clothes the Second Coming Lord would wear.

Some day you need to study more in detail how they prepared to welcome and attend the Messiah. Every day their group (performed) kyumbei 3,000 times. Their style of kyumbei was really, really formal, very heartistic. To bow just one time takes a long time. Can you imagine? 3,000 or 4,000 kyumbeis in order to welcome the Second Coming! God prepared so seriously for the Second Coming of the Lord!

As they waited for the Lord's day, unfortunately, they did not meet that day and died one by one, and the mission was passed down through three generations without giving up. And as the final culmination of that revelation, finally True Mother was born.

God's preparation for the Second Coming was incomparable to those for whom God was prepared until the birth of Jesus 2,000 years ago.

The spiritual world did not want to make a mistake. They prepared very, very seriously and thoroughly for the Second Coming.

It can be seen that God gave very thorough and specific teachings through spiritual people and prepared groups, sometimes through dreams and sometimes through revelations.

That's why True Father had to meet all this category of people, one by one. They had received the revelation that the Second Coming was coming very soon. Father met each one of them and talked with them, and Father clearly told them who he is. It is really incredible.

Today's youth ministry is long, so I will do it first.

Maybe today I cannot take time to explain the Divine Principle lecture. Today's title is "Remember what you owe and forget what others owe you" and the other title is "Do Not Lose Sight of the Greater Eternal Value ." This is very important content.

TODAY'S YOUTH MINISTRY: Joseph's Course - Remember what you owe and forget what others owe you & Do Not Lose Sight of the Greater Eternal Value

Today's title is "Remember what you owe and forget what others owe you."

Matthew 6:1-5 Giving to the Needy

1 "Be careful not to practice your righteousness in front of others to be seen by them. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven.

2 "So when you give to the needy, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honored by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward in full.

3 But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing,

4 so that your giving may be in secret. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

5 "And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward in full.

We hear this kind of guidance by Jesus very often. Many ministers and many leaders talk about this Bible verse. I really reflect on my life of faith based on this content. Jesus is really saying not to (seek to) be recognized just by human beings but by God. If you are recognized by human beings, you have already received your reward in full. However, you need to be recognized by God. If you are recognized by human beings, you already have received your reward. When you try to be recognized by human beings, you can easily become a hypocrite like (certain) Jewish people.

I always speak about sincerity. Whether someone recognizes you or not does not matter. You need to be sincere to your own self. Sincere to your own self! This is the point. When someone looks at me, (we may think,) "Oh, I have to be careful." How someone looks at me is not an important matter. (What matters is) how can I relate to heaven? God is watching me every minute, every time, every second. That is why I always need to think "Invisible God, God is everywhere with me. How can I relate with God?" That is the more important thing. Here it talks about, when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing. Then God will surely remember and you will receive your reward in heaven.

Remember What You Owe and Forget What Others Owe You

1. On Joseph's journey, as Joseph predicted, a drinking officer (cup bearer) in prison was able to return to work. But he forgot Joseph's request.

Joseph interpreted his dream. Joseph had an important mission for the sake of God's will. He (the drinking officer, the cup bearer) knew that someday he would return to his original position as the drinking officer. Joseph knew that he needed to get out of prison and someday needed to carry on God's mission. (So,) Joseph asked (the cup bearer) not to forget his request.

2. Fallen humans always forget what they owe others and always remember how they helped others. Because of these thoughts and habits, human relationships are cut off and no longer develop. We should rather live a life of faith where we do not forget what we owe and forget what others owe us.

Fallen man always remembers what he gave to others. He remembers eternally. But he easily forgets what he received from others. This is really fallen nature, really fallen nature -- even in the relationship between husband and wife, and in the relationship between parents and children. (Some) parents always ask their children, "Do you know how much I have done for you? Do you know how much I love you? How come you do like that?" It is a kind of expectation from children, from the spouse, from parents. That creates a weak relationship between parents and children, between husband and wife, between Cain and Abel. That's why we need to know how we can gain more benefit and blessing from heaven: we need to focus on how to give.

I (came to) realize this point, when I give something to others, I feel incredible joy and happiness. Giving itself is already an incredible reward. That's why you (should) focus on giving, rather than remembering, because giving itself is already joy and happiness. You have the object partner (to whom) you can give. That is already incredible joy and happiness.

That is why when I was young, I tried to have that kind of habit. Later on it became a good habit of giving and forgetting. When I focus on giving, I can forget. Then I can feel incredible joy and happiness. Our hobby should be giving. Giving is my hobby. Giving is your hobby. Giving, giving, giving. You can feel joy and happiness (in this way).

If you try to remember what you gave to others, this is really troublesome. Your heart cannot become deeper, cannot become wider. However, when you focus on giving, giving itself is already a great reward. You need to forget, "Oh, when I offer this money, when I tithe, I thoroughly check how headquarters uses it, how that guy is using it." That is not pure giving. What you offer to others, (you need to) completely forget. Whether that person misuses it or uses it properly does not matter.

When I offer something, it is not just for human beings. I am offering it for God. I offer it for God! Whether it is used well or misused is that person's portion of responsibility. My job is already done. My job is already done! I already have completed my offering for God.

"I don't want to offer any more because this public person, Abel, misused it." Of course, some public figure needs to check about that, but your attitude cannot be like that. When you offer your tithe, it (should be) pure giving. Whether our Abel figure, my leader, properly used it or not, if you have that kind of calculation, that kind of individualistic thinking about it, that means you have some kind of motivation and expectation. That is not pure motivation. That is why when you purely give, then God receives from you purely. Calculating, checking this or that -- of course, we need to do it -- but I am talking about your inner heart should be pure. This is very important.

3. As mentioned in the Bible before, the left hand should not know what the right hand does when giving kindness to others. We must reflect on whether we are really doing so as Jesus said.

That's why we need to have a parental heart. When parents do something for children, even though they are giving and giving and forgetting, (they ask), "How can I give a better one next time? I want to give a better one." When we focus on how to give a better one, then we can forget. How can we forget after giving? We need to give with a parental heart. When we give something with a parental heart and shed tears, then "That is not enough. That is not enough! That is not enough! Next time I will give a better one." For fallen man, when you give something, (you may feel), "It is already enough. I have already done enough." Calculation and expectation is not pure love and pure giving. We need to know about that.

4. At the time of exile from Egypt, the Israelites forgot about God's works of letting them cross the Red Sea, and feeding them quail and manna in the wilderness, and about being able to drink spring water from the rock. Whenever they were hungry, they remembered eating lamb in Egypt and lost faith in Jehovah God. Even though God worked with them through amazing miracles and wonders, they didn't have faith. It is because they did not remember and cherish God's grace.

Of course, sometimes we are very hungry. Sometimes it is a very difficult situation. However, we need to remember what we owe and forget what others owe us, what Heavenly Father owes us. This kind of thing (comes up) in our life of faith. Do not have any expectations of someone giving to me. If we have an expectation of someone giving to me -- "Oh, my spouse is supposed to give to me. My children need to listen to me. My parents need to give me something" -- If you have some kind of expectation, I am telling you, you will always have disappointment. If there is great expectation, do you want to get something? I am telling you, what is the outcome? We can have disappointment.

However, "how can I give more? How can I serve more? How can I give more? How can I contribute more?" If you have that kind of heart, your object partner someday will realize and return to you. If that guy does not return to you, God will surely return to you. This is a universal principle: a perfect plus can create a perfect minus. Even if someone does not remember you, the universe will remember you. God will return to you.

If God does not have that kind of universal principle, then God does not exist. God knows everything. When you have that kind of sincere heart and mind, God surely will return to you. When you are giving, someday you will receive. That is a universal principle. We need to believe in that. When you give something, you will get it. That is why you should not have any expectation of your partner. God will return to you through somewhere, not exactly through that person. Through somewhere. As long as you have such a beautiful attitude, beautiful motivation, the universal principle will surely return to you. This is really amazing guidance by Jesus and our True Parents.

5. This is not only true of the Israelites of the time, but also of anyone today. In other words, people forget their blessings and what is precious and complain only about being in pain when they are miserable.

When we receive a lot of things from others, from heaven, from True Parents, we easily forget. When we are in pain or are miserable, we easily forget that we received something from heaven, from True Parents. That is fallen nature.

Do Not Lose Sight of the Greater Eternal Value

6. The pain I go through when I am trained during a test is incomparable to the times I receive love and grace. How vain is the person who throws away the grace they have received so far just because trials and pain come in the course of their life?

You need to always remember how much blessing I have received from heaven, from True Parents. However, when you have a trial, just a little trial, just a little pain, then you start to be disappointed and forget God's ways, forget about God's eternal value and immediately doubt: "Wow! True Father is like that! True Mother is like that. How come?" How much time have you spent with True Parents! However, when you have trials, (even though) the time period of your trial is very short, you forget such a long time period with God and True Parents and throw it away so easily. Wow! What should we do? We have that kind of blood quality!

7. It is also precious for a couple to get married and live together for the rest of their lives, but if they forget that preciousness and the wife humiliates the husband because his salary is low and treats him carelessly -- "this guy does not make any money and just eats at home; how come his salary becomes lower and lower; this kind of person has no capability" -- if you treat your spouse like that, heavenly fortune will leave the family. If you forget each other's preciousness and evaluate the other person with external material values, heavenly fortune will leave the family. You shouldn't get hot blooded or hate over something small. In the most difficult times, if you think that there is no value more important than the fact that you two met, and respect and serve each other, God will certainly always allow material blessings to come to your family.

Sometimes the husband's financial situation is not easy. Sometimes the wife will need to work or needs to work harder; however, we have to be grateful. If the husband dies because of an accident and you have no more husband beside you and you need to survive by yourself, in the worst case you need to think this way. Just husband. "Even though you do not do much, just (because) you are beside me, I am already so grateful!"

When I think about my father and mother, I don't want to have any expectations of my father and mother any more. "My father, you are just being my father; Mother, you are just being my mother. (For this) I am already so grateful! You have already done everything for me. Just being my father, just being my mother... My first grandchild is already 6 years old. How much he stimulates me and gives me incredible joy and happiness! I don't want to have any expectation of my grandchild. Already you have made me so happy. If my child becomes 18 years old or 20 years old, already you gave me incredible joy and happiness, when I raised (you?) up. You have already returned to me that kind of joy and happiness. It is already enough.

"Why does my husband not make money? Why does my wife not do anything and only spends money?" If we complain about each other like that and you evaluate the other person like that centered on external material values, you will surely lose blessing and everything. For the time being maybe your husband becomes like that, maybe your wife becomes like that. However, you need to think about what the eternal value is. When you received the blessing with your eternal spouse, already the blessing itself with your spouse is really of eternal value. If we keep that kind of eternal value, rather than just focusing on small, small things, I am telling you, God is really moved by you. God surely will allow incredible material blessings for your family.

8. The same is true of Leah and Rachel. The first most important thing is the relationship between God and the husband. You must live with the belief that Heaven will bless you if God and your husband have a good relationship, but what is the point if you are disappointed by the absence of a baby, and your relationship with your husband becomes estranged and your relationship with your brothers and sisters becomes estranged?

9. The same is true of Ham from Noah's family. Ham knew through the flood judgment that God was with his father Noah. How can it be so easy to forget the relationship of heart between Noah and God, who had been with Noah for 120 years, due to one drunken and naked incident? However, Ham made a mistake because he thought centered on himself.

Can you imagine? Ham -- of course, before the 40-day flood judgment he may have mistrusted his father more -- but he saw after God's judgment, "Wow! Heavenly God was with my father for 120 years." He needed to realize that point. But all of a sudden, Noah became drunk and lay naked (in his tent). Because of this one small incident -- ten minutes or 3 minutes or 5 minutes -- Ham forgot everything: the relationship between his father and Heavenly Father for 120 years! That is why a fallen man just forgets because of some small incident and problems and trials. Ham forgot the time period of 120 years between Heavenly Parents and Noah. Wow! That's why we are stupid people!

10. If we are also interested in and attached to small things, we often lose sight of the greater eternal value. Therefore, the Bible rebuked people as a group that idolized rotting things (Romans, Chapter 1).

11. Think about the grace we have received from True Parents so far. A person who did not know the Principle came to know the purpose of life and the existence of God through the Principle. A trivial being like me, who had no choice but to die, met the Messiah, received the Blessing and gained eternal life, eternal love, and eternal lineage. Where is greater grace than this?

I am so grateful to God and True Parents! Because of True Parents, how much I changed my blood lineage! For me, a trivial being and stupid guy, I met God through True Parents. I know the identity of Heavenly Parents, how miserable he is. True Parents taught me who God is. He is my daddy, my parent, and I came to understand the purpose of my life and who True Parents are. They are my eternal savior. True Parents also saved me through the Blessing. They gave me eternal life and blood lineage and eternal love. Wow! Blessing ... self eternally grateful!

But because of some small incident, sometimes a children issue, this and that, then (one) doubts True Parents' value and forgets the value of the blessing. Wow! My goodness! Someone (may have been) been very faithful for 30 years or 40 years, but because of a small incident, some problems, they doubt True Parents and forget everything and even betray True Parents and go a different way and give up eternal value.

> Rom 1:23: They don't worship the glorious and eternal God. Instead, they worship idols that are made to look like humans who cannot live forever, and like birds, animals, and reptiles.

12. Did you come into the Unification Church, listen to the Principle and make a judgment that you wouldn't have any bitter heart even if you died? Wasn't it we who received the Blessing because this standard of judgment existed?

13. The Blessing is the most precious covenant we receive from God. There is nothing more precious than this. Blessed families are the most precious value and treasure that have never existed before in history.

Already I have received an incredible blessing from True Parents. How can I expect more than this? Because of some small, small incident -- you received persecution, you had a trial and you feel very much pain -- you start to doubt even the Blessing itself. Why do we have a terrible relationship between husband and wife? Because we forget easily (the) eternal value.

14. However, how sad would God's heart be if we lost all the standards we swore to God after receiving the Blessing and living together, and lost eternal value just because life was difficult with frequent trials and pains? Isn't this like throwing your pearls to pigs who don't know the pearls' value?

15. Therefore, blessed couples should never break the Blessing promise of "You are for me and I am for you. I was born for you, and you were born for me" in their relationship. We should not resent each other and lower the standard of value.

Sometimes we say to each other: "I want a divorce; I want to separate; I want to run away from that; I hate my spouse; I don't like it (the situation?)." Because of a small incident or a quarrel with each other, we forget the eternal value, the meaning of the Blessing.

16. If you resent others because you feel bothered by them, you become a foolish person who throws away eternal value because of very trivial feelings or matters.

17. In Matthew Chapter 19 of the Bible, a young man came to Jesus and asked, "What good thing must I do to get eternal life?" Jesus said, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me." However, considering that the young man got worried and retreated, we see that he abandoned the Lord and seized money.

18. If humans are too ignorant, they will not know the eternal value of God and True Parents and only grab onto things that quickly rot and disappear.

19. So what are the things that will rot in our lives? The Bible says:

Fallen man does not focus on eternal value. He is focused on foolish things. What are the things that will rot in our lives? The Bible says:

Rom 1: 29-32

29 They have become filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, greed and depravity. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit and malice. They are gossips,

30 slanderers, God-haters, insolent, arrogant and boastful; they invent ways of doing evil; they disobey their parents;

31 they have no understanding, no fidelity, no love, no mercy.

32 Although they know God's righteous decree that those who do such things deserve death, they not only continue to do these very things, but also approve of those who practice them.

Fallen man always focuses on what? On valuable things.(?) Sometimes he focuses too much on what to wear, what to eat, what to do. Sometimes he focuses on such evil things as envy, murder, strife, deceit and malice, all these kinds of garbage things and forgets what the greater eternal value is.

20. Conclusion: We should not be foolish people who abandon the path of life and choose the path of death. Even if our ancestors to this day have made such an error, we should not follow in such footsteps. Our faith should not become a course where we value rotting things and consider eternal things as worthless.

I am so grateful because I received the Blessing. I gained eternal life. I gained eternal love. I gained God's eternal blood lineage. I am so grateful. I need to confess that Heavenly Parents, you are my eternal parent. I need to confess that True Parents, you are my savior, you are my True Father, you are my True Mother, you are my eternal parents. Just only thinking about the Blessing, it is eternal value. God, True Parents, you gave eternal life to me.

Of course, sometimes I don't agree with my wife. Sometimes I quarrel a little bit with my wife. However, I cannot forget, no matter what, the greatest value which is the Blessing. Heavenly God, True Parents, because of you I have a beautiful wife, I have beautiful children, I have beautiful grandchildren. I am eternally grateful to you, Heavenly Parents.

That's why, always remember what the greatest eternal value is. Sometimes we are focused on . . . things. Sometimes we are focused too much on material things and easily forget greater eternal value. We always need to remember that. Then our life will become so meaningful and thankful!

God bless you!◆

Note: This lightly edited transcription may contain errors and omissions. indecipherable or uncertain words are tagged with a "(?)" and phrases with an ellipsis "...". First, second and third person pronouns have been left in place as spoken, and other apparently Korean English expressions have been preserved. This text and the powerpoint slides from this speech are available as pdf files at text.morndev.com & yong.hoondok.com. Audio only is available at anchor.morndev.com, spotify.morndev.com & audio.morndev.com.◆

Episode 51

Morning
Heart Devotion

The 11th 40 day Jeongseong Condition (16th day)
51 day

True Mother and the spirit-led churches

한학자 총재와 신령교단

Dec 15, 2021

North America HQ

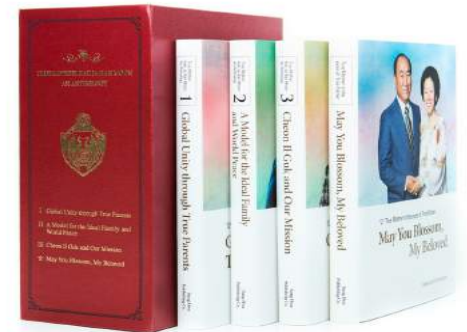

True Mother and the spirit-led churches

Those of you who have listened to True Father's sermons are aware that as we attend True Parents on the earth there are special events in the heavenly providence that happen without any of us realizing it. At that time in Korea, there were many spirit-led churches, which were different from the Christians who believed that if you just had blind faith in Jesus and the Bible you would go to heaven. These groups had only one goal, which was to prepare the way and to follow guidance which they received directly from God about the search for the Lord's Bride. I was born into a family that was spiritually prepared, whose preparation included participation in those spirit-led churches. I have memories of the indescribable suffering endured by the churches to which my mother, Daemonim, belonged. The members of those churches lived entirely according to the divine revelations they received.

True Mother and the spirit-led churches

Today as I reflect upon the circumstances of that time, I am drenched in sorrow. These revelations directed them to walk an indemnity course in order to prepare an easier path for the Lord. It was an unbelievable course filled with difficulties and hardships. Some of those members died in prison. Having been called by God to prepare for the Messiah, they overcame their difficulties by carrying with them only the hope that someday they would be able to meet him.

True Mother and the spirit-led churches

So, with devotion and attendance, they made extensive preparations to welcome the Returning Lord. Among the things they did was to prepare everything for him, from spoons for him to eat with to clothes for him to wear. The revelations they received were so detailed that they knew even the size of his clothes.

Yet while they endured indescribable suffering to carry out these directions, unfortunately they died, one by one, unable to meet the Lord. However, their mission was passed down through three generations, and I was born at the culmination of their revelations. When I was born, God gave revelations about his plan that the Lord at his Second Advent would be born on earth. These revelations were given to a woman named Rev. Heo Ho-bin. When I was six, Rev. Heo's mother met me and prophesied, "You will surely be Heaven's Bride." She had received that revelation about me though I was still just a young girl. (1977.05.03, Belvedere Training Center)

True Mother Ja Haeng Moon: An Anthology 1
Global Unity through

Today's Youth Ministry

Joseph's Course 요셉노정

Remember what you owe and forget what others owe you

&

Do not lose sight of the greater eternal value

신세진 것은 기억하고 신세를 지운 것은 잊으라
보다 귀한 영원한 가치를 잃지 말라.

Matthew 6:1-5 Giving to the Needy

1 “Be careful not to practice your righteousness in front of others to be seen by them. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven.

2 “So when you give to the needy, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honored by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward in full. 시내가그스

3 But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing,

4 so that your giving may be in secret. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

5 “And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward in full.

Remember what you owe and forget what others owe you

1. On Joseph's journey, as Joseph predicted, a drinking officer in prison was able to return to work. But he forgot Joseph's request.
2. Fallen humans always forget what they owe others and always remember how they helped others. Because of these thoughts and habits, human relationships are cut off and no longer develop. We should rather live a life of faith where we do not forget what we owe and forget what others owe us.
3. As mentioned in the Bible before, the left hand should not know what the right hand does when giving kindness to others. We must reflect on whether we are really doing so as Jesus said.

Remember what you owe and forget what others owe you

3. At the time of exile from Egypt, the Israelites forgot about God's works of letting them cross the Red Sea, and feeding them quail and manna in the wilderness, and about being able to drink spring water from the rock. Whenever they were hungry, they remembered eating lamb in Egypt and lost faith in Jehovah God. Even though God worked with them through amazing miracles and wonders, they didn't have faith. It is because they did not remember and cherish God's grace.

4. This is not only true of the Israelites of the time, but also of anyone today. In other words, people forget their blessings and what is precious and complain only about being in pain when they are miserable.

Do not lose sight of the greater eternal value

5. The pain I go through when I am trained during a test is incomparable to the times I receive love and grace. How vain is the person who throws away the grace they have received so far just because trials and pain come in the course of their life?
6. It is also precious for a couple to get married and live together for the rest of their lives, but if they forget that preciousness and the wife humiliates the husband because his salary is low and treats him carelessly, heavenly fortune will leave the family. If you forget each other's preciousness and evaluate the other person with external material values, heavenly fortune will leave the family. You shouldn't get hot blooded or hate over something small. In the most difficult times, if you think that there is no value more important than the fact that you two met, and respect and serve each other, God will certainly always allow material blessings to come to your family.

Do not lose sight of the greater eternal value

7. The same is true of Leah and Rachel. The first most important thing is the relationship between God and the husband. You must live with the belief that Heaven will bless you if God and your husband have a good relationship, but what is the point if you are disappointed by the absence of a baby, and your relationship with your husband becomes estranged and your relationship with your brothers and sisters becomes estranged?
8. The same is true of Ham from Noah's family. Ham knew through the flood judgment that God was with his father Noah. How can it be so easy to forget the relationship of heart between Noah and God, who had been with Noah for 120 years, due to one drunken and naked incident? However, Ham made a mistake because he thought centered on himself.

Do not lose sight of the greater eternal value

9. If we are also interested in and attached to small things, we often lose sight of the greater eternal value. Therefore, the Bible rebuked people as a group that idolized rotting things (Romans Chapter 1).
10. Think about the grace we have received from True Parents so far. A person who did not know the Principle came to know the purpose of life and the existence of God through the Principle. A trivial being like me, who had no choice but to die, met the Messiah, received the Blessing and gained eternal life, eternal love, and eternal lineage. Where is greater grace than this?

Do not lose sight of the greater eternal value

11. Did you come into the Unification Church, listen to the Principle and make a judgment that you wouldn't have any bitter heart even if you died? Wasn't it us who received the Blessing because this standard of judgment existed?
12. The Blessing is the most precious covenant we receive from God. There is nothing more precious than this. Blessed families are the most precious value and treasure that have never existed before in history.
13. However, how sad would God's heart be if we lost all the standards we swore to God after receiving the Blessing and living together, and lost eternal value just because life was difficult with frequent trials and pains? Isn't this like throwing your pearls to pigs who don't know the pearls' value?

Do not lose sight of the greater eternal value

14. Therefore, blessed couples should never break the Blessing promise of "You are for me and I am for you. I was born for you, and you were born for me" in their relationship. We should not resent each other and lower the standard of value.
15. If you resent others because you feel bothered by them, you become a foolish person who throws away eternal value because of very trivial feelings or matters.

Do not lose sight of the greater eternal value

16. In Matthew Chapter 19 of the Bible, a young man came to Jesus and asked, “What good thing must I do to get eternal life?” Jesus said, “If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.” However, considering that the young man got worried and retreated, we see that he abandoned the Lord and seized money.
17. If humans are too ignorant, they will not know the eternal value of God and True Parents and only grab onto things that quickly rot and disappear.

Do not lose sight of the greater eternal value

18. So what are the things that will rot in our lives?
The Bible says:

19. Rom 1: 29-32

29 They have become filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, greed and depravity. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit and malice. They are gossips,

30 slanderers, God-haters, insolent, arrogant and boastful; they invent ways of doing evil; they disobey their parents;

31 they have no understanding, no fidelity, no love, no mercy.

32 Although they know God's righteous decree that those who do such things deserve death, they not only continue to do these very things but also approve of those who practice them.

Do not lose sight of the greater eternal value

20. We should not be foolish people who abandon the path of life and choose the path of death. Even if our ancestors to this day have made such an error, we should not follow in such footsteps. Our faith should not become a course where we value rotting things and consider eternal things as worthless.

Thank you so much