God's Purpose for Creating Human Beings

For what reason did God create human beings? He did not create them just to watch His sons and daughters live their lives. He created them in order to share love with them. This is the only conclusion I can come to, however deeply I think about it.

The purpose of our creation is love. Life was created based on God's love; God did not generate love by first creating life. In other words, life began because love started budding in God's heart.

Since life started from love, the result must also be produced through love. Since the beginning was love, the end must also be love. This is why we human beings are miserable when love is taken away. (57 - 21, 1972.5.21)

創造人的目的

神為什麼創造了人類？不是為了看到兒女的生命，而是為了與兒女相愛。再怎樣思考，也只能得出這樣的結論：神創造人類的目的就是為了愛。

神以愛為中心、在愛的基礎上創造了生命，而不是在創造了生命之後用生命來誘發愛。換句話說，是因為愛在神的心中萌發，才生了生命。

既然生命來自愛，最後的結果也應該是愛。開始是愛，所以結尾也應該是愛。

因此，抽離了愛，我們人類便是不幸的。（57-21, 1972.5.21）

Chicago Family Learns How to Teach the Word

Approximately 300 Unificationists gathered for Sunday Service at the Marcus Addison Theater to hear Dr. Balcomb's speech "Staying Saved."

Dr. Balcomb shared a powerful message for Sunday Service about the significant missions of the three wise men and of John the Baptist during Jesus' time.

Sunday afternoon consisted of a Divine Principle lecture training session led by Dr. Balcomb, who presented a PowerPoint sildeshow developed at Headquarters to help members out in the field spread the Word.

Dr. Michael Balcomb, vice president of the Unification Church USA, shared his heart to some 300 Unification Church members at the Marcus Addison Theater in Addison, IL on Sunday, December 30, 2013. As we had attended the True Family Values Banquet with Rev. Hyung Jin Moon the evening before, members and pastors from across District 7 came together to hear Dr. Balcomb preach.

The Sunday Service began with great music from the worship band that prepared the hearts of the congregation. Dr. Balcomb's message of "Staying Saved" was the finale to the Chicago community's Christmas Sermon Series, and he encouraged us all to keep practicing the lessons we have learned from True Parents. He shared a powerful message about the significant missions of the three wise men and of John the Baptist during Jesus' time and reminded us that Foundation Day is just the beginning, not the end. As it was the last Sunday of 2012, his message was a great reminder of the life and lessons we have received from True Father.

After service, Dr. Balcomb, along with Chicago city pastors Jario and Leena Vincenz-Gavin, greeted congregants as they exited the theater. Members gathered in the lobby and shared for more than an hour and a half over coffee and pastries. Following service, about 40 members went over to the Community Center for Divine Principle lecture training. During lunch, members had time to share with each other, and following the meal, District Pastor Rev. Kazuo Takami offered introductory remarks and welcomed Dr. Balcomb to begin the training. To start off, Dr. Balcomb introduced himself and shared about what he has been up to in the years previous to his new assignment and how he received this new mission from True Mother. It was nice to learn a little more about our vice president.

Dr. Balcomb walked us through a newly created PowerPoint presentation of the Divine Principle. In the first 20 minutes, he shared the “Introduction” as well as part of the “Principle of Creation,” and then invited four volunteers to give the next lectures, two first-generation Unificationists and two second-generation Unificationists. Everyone was amazed at the professional quality with which each of these first-time presenters could share; they simply read the notes provided by the PowerPoint as they clicked through the slide show. This presentation is written in such a way that even when read, it sounds very personal. Several of the participants expressed gratitude to the Headquarters Ministry Support team for creating such a presentation on the Divine Principle.

The “Fall of Man” and “Purpose of the Messiah” lectures were completed by four more volunteers. According to participants of the training, the PowerPoint was lauded for its visual, modern, clear and easy-to-use aspects. The point of this training session was clear – anyone could teach the Divine Principle. It was so exciting to see the energy with which everyone left.

Chicago will continue teaching Divine Principle to members and guests alike, and we will do our best to make God and True Parents proud in the coming year of 2013.

Farewell Message: Dr. Chang Shik Yang - January 4, 2013

My beloved Brothers and Sisters in America,
After attending True Parents in America for many years, and serving as Continental Director for most of that time, I recently received a new mission. On the 100th day after Father's Seonghwa, True Mother called me to Korea, and I was selected as the International Executive Vice-President of the Unification Church, supporting our International President, Rev. Hyung Jin Moon and overseeing the World Mission Department headquarters. I will also serve as the Chairman of the Unification Movement and the President of HSA-UWC in Korea and as a Special Assistant to our True Mother. To begin with, I will be working to organize and prepare the celebration of Foundation Day in Korea.

It has been a great honor to serve God's providence in the USA side-by-side with all of you, my dear American Brothers and Sisters. We have shared so many memorable experiences together, particularly during these last twelve years, attending our True Parents as they laid the foundation for the coming Cheon Il Guk era.

We have worked to bring together clergy of many faiths who supported True Father, for the Middle East Peace Initiative; True Father's 50-state speaking tour and many other providential tours; the deeply significant crowning ceremonies, the Las Vegas providence and OSDP workshops; and countless other historical achievements by our True Parents in America. Through it all, True Father has raised America to become the elder son nation, and placed his trust in you. It has been a privilege to work with you through all these unforgettable moments.

We have certainly shared sorrow and difficulties as well. Just a few short months ago, none of us dreamed that our True Father would be gone from us physically, departing for the spiritual realm so soon. This is a challenging and serious time, but as I leave I want to remind you that there are so many reasons for hope. I am deeply confident that Foundation Day will be a new beginning for our movement.

Our True Mother has become absolutely focused and resolute as the representative of True Parents on the earth. Communing with True Father every day, and operating in absolute oneness with him in the Spirit World, True Mother is in many ways in a different position now. She is standing firmly as the Central Figure on earth, leading the Providence with authority and confidence, despite the many trials she herself has been through.

I am a witness to how much True Parents love America, and how much hope and desire they have for our members and families. Our True Father spent nearly two thirds of his public life in this country, investing his heart and soul in all of us. He loved this nation the most, knowing the great mission America has for God's providence in the entire world. This nation has remained as True Parents' number one priority. Even when he returned to Korea, the United States continued to occupy his mind, and he was compelled to return here again and again. With that same love, our True Mother sent Hyung Jin Nim to lead the providence in this nation, representing our True Parents. This is another great hope for America.

Hyung Jin Nim was born and raised in this country, and naturally has a bright, loving and open mind toward this nation. During these final years with True Father on earth, Hyung Jin Nim was always at his side. I witnessed his absolute faith, love and loyalty to True Parents. True Father raised him as a spiritual leader since his early 20's. We have all seen his deep humility, his warm and loving heart. We know his broad, embracing nature toward everyone. With Yeon Ah Nim by his side, he wants to empower and support Blessed Central Families as the precious root of our community. With a capable team led by Dr. Michael Balcomb and others, he is recreating our National Headquarters to support our local communities. Beginning from East Garden, which is filled with True Father's spirit and foundation, Hyung Jin Nim is revitalizing our worship tradition. I am so grateful that True Parents prepared such loving and capable leadership for America.

My Brothers and Sisters, True Parents have placed their trust in you as the elder son nation, and the world needs your support, hope and guidance. Your growth and prosperity as a church will continue to be a great example for our world community. God needs America to stand for the world economically, morally and spiritually. I know so well the talent, capability and passion of our members and leadership in this country, and I know what you are capable of. When I see so many of our young people inspired and involved at Headquarters, in the Gen Peace Academy and around the nation, I feel great hope for our future. I pray that you will come together in support of our International President and our True Mother at this most critical time in the providence.

My dear family, it has been my great honor serving with you, and I will never forget the many experiences we have shared with laughter and the tears as we did our best to support our True Parents in this nation that they love so deeply. A huge part of my heart, my life, my lineage and family, is planted in the soil of this nation. I love America, and I love each and every one of you. Of course I am not far away. I am simply moving my office to Korea! I will continue to do all that I can in this international role to support the providence in America. I am sure that you and I will continue to work together.

As we prepare for Foundation Day, we are all aware that we have too little to offer to our True Parents. But my dear Brothers and Sisters, please receive the great grace that they have prepared for this historical moment. They love us not simply because of what we have invested, but because they have invested in us completely. True Parents are inviting us, despite our limitations, to stand as their direct descendants on Foundation Day. I will be proud and grateful to stand with each one of you on that day.

Despite the tribulations and difficulties we are facing as a community, remember that True Father is the Messiah, and stands with incredible power and authority to lead us from the Spiritual World. His heart is in True Mother's heart, and her heart is in True Father's heart. When Jesus died painfully and alone on the cross 2,000 years ago, he seemed alone, without followers or foundation, executed as a criminal by the mightiest nation on earth. Yet he cried out, "It is finished!" Given that miserable situation, who could have dreamed that Christianity would arise on the spiritual foundation he had established, to lead the world, move history and embrace over a billion people?

When True Father finished his final public prayer, he said, "Everything has been accomplished" four times. Let us remember the unparalleled foundation that True Parents have established in their lifetimes, far beyond any religious founder in history. Upon that foundation, True Father's teaching and tradition will no doubt move the world. How soon and how powerfully that happens will depend upon you and me.

I am excited to work together with our American family to make God's and True Parents' dream of Cheon Il Guk a reality in our world. Please feel free to contact me with your comments, thoughts or suggestions, or simply to say hello. I will be praying for each and every one of you, for your families and your work, and I pray that God will continue to bless and guide America.

New Teaching Method to be Launched by Foundation Day

Church members from Boston to the San Francisco Bay are applauding a new teaching tool which allows novices to sound as credible as Ivy League academics. Dubbed “Discovering the Divine Principle, the scripted slide show gets unpacked at nearly every stop of Dr. Michael Balcomb’s preaching tour of the United States, and gets rave reviews every time.

“The tools Dr. Balcomb presented were impressive, and several inexperienced members took turns learning to teach to the rest of the audience. It proved to be a good experience for all who attended, and a lively discussion followed, according to Rev. Michael Hentrich, Colorado State Pastor, after one of these visits. The project began more than a year ago as a brainchild of Rev. Andrew Compton, then the pastor of the West Rock Church in Tarrytown, NY.

“My original motivation was that we provide Unificationists with a newer, briefer and fresher Divine Principle lecture series,” wrote Rev. Compton to Unificationnews.

“Not everyone has the ability to teach the Divine Principle, and the only lecture series that was available until now was the one produced long ago by [Rev.] Kevin McCarthy, which is more than an hour long for each lecture.”

With the aim of making lectures that were clearer and shorter, Rev. Compton started to design a new series. “I wanted to create something that a new guest, someone who wanted to know what Unificationists believe, could easily digest,” he explained.

Having discovered that the local, public-access cable station provided free cameras, crew and editing work, Rev. Compton made an arrangement to create with the station a series of 12 Divine Principle presentations, each 27 minutes in length. “I faced a problem where the cable station would not do re-takes,” he said. “I had one shot at producing a good presentation for each of the 12 series. Therefore, I wrote out notes of the entire lecture content in order to practice before producing the actual video.”

After a few sessions had been produced, Rev. Compton invited Heather Thalheimer, former director of Education at Unification Church USA, to provide advice for improvements. In response, Thalheimer decided to expand the series and assigned Dr. Tyler Hendricks, developer of ministry curriculum, to create a Divine Principle lecture series based on Rev. Compton’s notes. A new project, titled “Discovering the Divine Principle,” began.

“This project was very near and dear to my heart,” Thalheimer wrote in an email to Unificationnews. “The Education Department had the goal of developing a Divine Principle series that has a contemporary look and feel while staying true to the original substance of the Divine Principle. The Divine Principle is competing with a lot of other media messages for attention. Whatever we produce has to look attractive and hip to get noticed.”

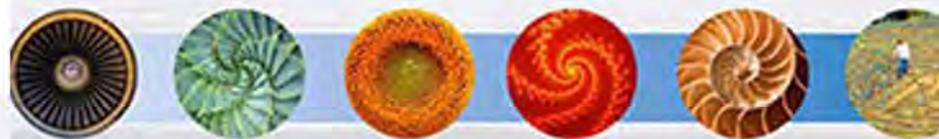

According to Dr. Hendricks, “The ‘Discovering the Divine Principle’ lecture series was designed to meet a need – to present a style of teaching the Divine Principle in terms that are relatively simple to grasp for the average person – without much religious background, commitment or training.” Thalheimer said the idea to script the content of each of the 12 lectures came about so that even a first-timer could learn and teach “the powerful truth” of the Divine Principle.

“I am happy to say that Dr. Hendricks and Christine Froelich, advisor to Generation Peace Academy (GPA), have improved my notes tremendously,” said Rev. Compton. “In addition, designers Jonathan Gullery and GPA graduate LeeHee Wolf have created an entire new set of PowerPoint slides that are modern, bright and very attractive.”

Before the lecture series was finished, trial runs were held in Denver, Chicago, and San Leandro, CA to test the presentations. “Dr. Michael Balcomb, vice president of Unification Church USA, has been out in the field every week since December presenting the slides and encouraging participants to try out the new lecture,” Dr. Hendricks told Unificationnews. “We have had young teenagers get up to present, as well as Japanese people who don’t speak English well. The participants find that this format of reading from the script works and makes it easy to present. We’ve heard that participants got very inspired, and we’ve received a lot of encouragement from the field.”

The script for the 12 lectures is complete, and the first seven of the 12 slide shows are finished. According to Dr. Hendricks, the goal is to have all the Divine Principle presentations finished by Foundation Day, February 22, 2013 and made available to members of the local churches. In addition to the lecture series, Dr. Hendricks is working on a “metric companion” to guide teachers who help students through the 12 sessions and “digest, reflect upon and wrestle with the material and see how it relates to their own life.”

Re. : Announcement of Leadership Change

This is to announce a leadership change for the purpose of better preparing for Foundation Day and beyond.

Dr. Chang Shik YANG has been appointed by True Parents to the position of International Executive Vice-President of the Unification Church where he will assist True Parents and the International President with operations dealing with the regions and worldwide missions. Dr. Yang will also be responsible for and in charge of overseeing the operations of the World Mission Headquarters. He will relinquish his position as Regional President of North America 1 which will be assumed by the President and CEO of the Holy Spirit Association for the Unification of World Christianity in the United States.

I thank Dr. Yang for his many years of investment in the United States and look forward to his contribution to our church's global mission.

These changes are effective as of 11.03 by the Heavenly Calendar (December 15, 2012).
